Victims

Nine Palestinian refugees sheltered in AlAyedeen Camp in Homs were killed under torture in Syrian government jails.

AGPS reporter identified six casualties as Fadi Taha, aged 26, Musab Sharifa, 27, Muhammad Ali Namer Ayoub, Mohammed Saleh AlGhalawi, Mohammed Ghadban, and Awad Abu Zaqour. The names of the three other victims are kept secret by AGPS at the request of their families.

The casualties had reportedly been incarcerated in Syrian dungeons for over three years.

Latest Developments

Thousands of Palestinians and Syrians have sought shelter outside of AlMuzeireeb town due to the soaring warfare waged between the Syrian government forces, escorted by their Russian abettors, and the opposition groups.

Reporting from Syria, AGPS news correspondent said hundreds of families have gone homeless and dispossessed as a tide of aggressive offensives has hit AlMuzeireeb and other adjacent areas, including Tafas. Scores of other families kept to their homes in AlMuzeireeb, having no other place to hide into.

Some 1,700 families have been enduring dire living conditions in the poverty-stricken AlMuzeireeb town.

Meanwhile, a video circulated on social media networks showed a barefoot Palestinian child, believed to be from Yarmouk Camp, as living rough in Damascus streets.

The child said he fled a so-called “Child’s Rights Shelter” due to the heavy beating he had been made to endure. He added that his father died while his mother got married to another man.

The orphan appealed for a safe place to take shelter in as he has been sleeping in the streets near AlRais Bridge in Damascus.

Responding to the video, activists called on the humanitarian institutions to take urgent action so as to save the child and provide him with a safe shelter.

In the meantime, the Charity Commission for Relief of the Palestinian People, in partnership with the Palestinian Red Crescent, embarked on the “Eight Medical Week” campaign for the people of Yarmouk sheltered in Yalda town, south of Damascus.

The campaign kicked off on June 30 and is slated to be wrapped up on July 5.

The registered patients will receive free medical check-ups and medicines, in the first such move carried out in favor of Yarmouk residents following the retreat of ISIS militias from the camp.

In another development, AGPS kept record of the death of 30 Palestinians in June 2018 due to war-related incidents in Syria, 25 among whom died under torture in Syrian government dungeons. Three casualties died in unidentified circumstances, a refugee was assassinated, and another was gunned down.

The list of victims for June 2018 included 25 from the AlAyedeen refugee camp in Hama, three from Yarmouk Camp, one refugee from Daraa Camp, and another from Jaramana Camp.
