AlHasan died in clashes with ISIS militias in Yarmouk Camp. Basil Azzam was killed in a Russian aggression on Idlib.

Scores of Palestinian youths have been forced to join the PLA. Those who refuse forced conscription are often subjected to manhunt and imprisonment. Thousands of young men have fled the country in the hunt for a safer shelter.

Meanwhile, Palestinian refugee Mahmoud Maw'ed, from Yarmouk Camp, has been secretly held in Syrian state prisons since February 2, 2014.

Over 1,724 Palestinian detainees have been enduring mysterious fates in Syrian government jails, among them 108 women and girls.

In another development, a free medical week has been launched at AlRa'i Hospital in the Lebanese city of Sidon on Friday. Free medical check-ups will be provided to ophthalmology patients regardless of their nationalities, from 09:00 a.m. to 12:00 a.m.

Patients suffering blue water, eye pressure, sight disorders, and retinal diseases have benefited from the initiative.
