Latest Developments

An arrest sweep has been launched by opposition outfits in Syria, escorted by Turkish gendarmerie, in Deir Ballout Camp in Afrin's outskirts, north of Aleppo.

A curfew has been slapped in the area at the same time as residential tents have been subjected to intensive searches.

The sweep culminated in the abduction of 10 unidentified persons.

150 names figure on a blacklist of wanted persons to be arrested by the opposition squads on allegations of incitement against the Turkish authorities.

On September 8, 2018 A couple of days earlier, police forces from Jindires town, northwest of Aleppo, arrested the Palestinian refugee Mohamed Eid Noufel, nicknamed Abu AlThawrah and deported from southern Damascus to Deir Ballout Camp, north of Syria.

On August 13, Turkish soldiers escorted by Faylak AlSham group cordoned off Deir Ballout and AlMuhammadiya refugee camps in Afrin, north of Aleppo, and arrested 12 people.

On May 25, 2018, AlShamiya Front arrested the Palestinian refugee Atiyeh Mohamed Mahmoud.

Meanwhile, over 325 displaced Palestinian families in Deir Ballout Camp have expressed concerns over their fate as a freezing winter season has been around the corner.

The families lashed out at the apathy maintained by UNRWA, the Palestinian Authority, and all other concerned bodies regarding their tragic situation.

Displaced Palestinian and Syrian families sheltered north of Syria have sounded alarm bells over the acute damage wrought by sewage disposal poured near their refugee camps, which have already been gripped with a poor infrastructure.

The displaced families warned of the life-threatening diseases wrought by poisonous rodents and unpleasant smells stemming from contaminated sewage.

A set of structures built by the families to prevent sewage downpours from swamping their tents in AlMuhamadiya and Deir Ballout camps was demolished by opposition and Turkish squads.

The families continue to appeal to the Turkish authorities and relief institutions to make urgent steps in order to rinse out waste water, enhance hygiene in the area, and provide them with much-needed relief items.

Palestinian refugees sheltered north of Syria have been enduring a tragic situation. Most of them have been crammed in poorly-equipped tents and denied their rights to vital services.

In the meantime, Palestinian refugees from Syria in Lebanon continue to launch a cry for help, raising fears over their unknown fate and precarious situation in the Lebanese territories.

In appeals circulated on social media networks, the refugees called for staging rallies outside of Europe-based embassies to push for dispatching refugees from Lebanon to their motherland--Palestine--or to European countries pending heir return to their homeland.

Along the same line, Palestinian refugee Jamal Ahmad Na'im, born in 1987, has been enduring a mysterious fate in Syrian government prisons, where he has been locked up for three years.

His fate and condition remain unknown. He was kidnapped at the Ibn Naifs checkpoint, in Damascus on September 24, 2015.

A couple of years ago, reports said he was last seen in Sednaya prison.

AGPS documented the detention of 1,696 Palestinians in Syrian government prisons, including 108 women and girls.
