Latest Developments:

Deraa camp for Palestinian refugees and the adjacent Sad Road neighborhood, in south Syria, were bombarded with a number of mortar shells, leading to material damage.

Meanwhile, Deraa camp is suffering from extremely harsh living and health crises, especially with the ongoing electricity and water cuts from the camp, as well as the severe lack of medical materials inside the camp and the halt of the majority of medical services.

In the meantime, Yarmouk camp for Palestinian refugees in Damascus, has witnessed continued fighting between ISIS and 'Hayat Tahrir Al-Sham' in the western Yarmouk region, through which ISIS is attempting to expand its areas of control, at the expense of 'Tahrir Al-Sham.'

This comes in conjunction with ISIS's strengthening of its areas of control, buy building fortifications near to the meeting points with the armed Syrian opposition factions, on the outskirts of the town of Yelda, which is neighboring to the camp.

ISIS had attacked ‘Hayat Tahrir Al-Sham’s’ sites in Yarmouk camp a few days ago, and imposed its control on the areas which belonged to ‘Tahrir Al-Sham.’

Meanwhile, AGPS’s documented statistics indicate that the number of Palestinian refugees who have died because of the Syrian war have reached 3666 victims, since 2012.

According to the statistics, the reasons for death were as follows: 1153 refugees died due to the exchanged bombardments between the Syrian regime and the armed Syrian opposition groups, while the fighting between the regime and the opposition led to the death of 979 victims. 477 male and female refugees died due to torture in the Syrian regime’s prisons, while being investigated.

309 died due to sniper shots, while the siege imposed on the Palestinian camps by the Syrian regime and a number of the Palestinian factions affiliated to it, lost 201 Palestinian their lives, as a result of malnutrition and the lack of medical services, due to the siege.

The remaining victims died from different reasons, including explosions, summary executions and drowning while trying to immigrate to Europe.

AGPS records all deaths among the Palestinian refugees in Syria, no matter their political views or the party responsible for their death.

In another context, to document your suffering and make it available for the public, the Action Group invites you to the initiative by registering your story within the “This is My Story” project, which

Local Work Committees

The Charitable Association for Palestinian Relief in Syria distributed winter clothing to 150 families of orphans or special needs children, in Al-Aedin camp in Homs.

The residents of Al-Aedin camp are suffering from harsh humanitarian and economic conditions, due to the widespread of unemployment, the high prices and the lack of a source of income, amid the ongoing war in Syria.

Palestinians of Syria: February 23, 2018 Statistics:

- The total number of victims documented by the Action Group is 3660, including 465 women
- 1666 Palestinians are locked up behind Syrian government's bars, 105 of which are women
