Latest Developments

Palestinian brothers Muhyi AlDeen Mustafa Joudeh, born in 1986, and Marwan Mustafa Joudeh, born in 1977, were tortured to death in Syrian state prisons.

Marwan was arrested on January 1, 2013 while Muhyi AlDeen was arrested on May 1, 2014 at the Yalda-Ali AlWahsh checkpoint.

AGPS documented the death of 565 Palestinian refugees under torture in Syrian prisons.

Recently, the Syrian government released the names of Palestinian refugees who were tortured to death in jail.

Affidavits by ex-detainees also testified to the presence of refugee newborns held in their mothers' arms inside state-run penal complexes.

Meanwhile, ten members of a Palestinian refugee family have also been held in Syrian jails since June 16, 2013. AGPS identified the family members as: Mahira Mahmoud Amayri, Hadeel Mahmoud Amayri, Aseel Mahmoud Amayri, Widad Mahmoud Amayri, Razan Mahmoud Amayri, Suheer Mahmoud Amayri, and Maysaa Jamal Idris, along with Firas Waleed Dasouki and his children Hamza Firas Dasouki and Hala Firas Dasouki, all kidnapped by the Syrian army squads at a checkpoint in Nisreen Street, at AlTadhamun neighborhood.

Meanwhile, Palestinian refugee Adnan AlSayed, deputy chief of Liwaa AlQuds brigade, affiliated with the Syrian government forces, was released from a Syrian state detention center, where he has been held for 30 days.

Sometime earlier, Samer Rafe', chief commander of Liwaa AlQuds Brigade, was arrested on charges of armed robbery and arms sales.

In another development, activists have called on residents of Yarmouk Camp to stand on guard to “profiteers” who purchase civilian property at very low costs, taking unreasonable profit from the calamitous situation and state of psychological dismay overwhelming the families.

Profiteers have left no stone unturned to purchase damaged property at extremely low costs, particularly in Street 30, Street 15, AlJazeera neighborhood, and AlHajar AlAswad.

Sometime earlier, lawyers warned that crooked brokers have been telling the residents that they will not be able to go back to their homes and that the camp will remain uninhabitable due to poor infrastructure, in an attempt to force the locals to sell their property.

The Syrian government forces regained control over Yarmouk Camp and southern Damascus towns following a 33-day military operation launched on April 19, 2018 in cooperation with the Russian forces. At least 33 civilians were killed and dozens more injured in the offensive. Heavy material damage was wrought on civilian buildings and property.
