Latest Developments

AGPS kept record of the names of 3,453 Palestinian refugees killed in the raging Syrian warfare.

The data was amassed by AGPS field reporters scattered across over 20 flashpoints in and outside war-tattered Syria.

AGPS also documented the incarceration of 1,169 Palestinians in Israeli government lock-ups.

AGPS reports and detailed statistics are available both in English and in Arabic on the group's official website: www.actionpal.org.uk

Several workshops have been held by AGPS in Geneva and London, in partnership with the London-based Palestinian Return Center (PRC). AGPS has also held exhibitions in Sweden, the Netherlands, Turkey, Austria, Lebanon, and Germany, as part of its underway endeavors to document the situation of Palestinian refugees in Syria.

Meanwhile, 459 Palestinian refugees have been tortured to death in Syrian regime penitentiaries, amid growing concerns over the fates of hundreds of detainees whose situation has been shrouded in mystery due to the gag orders slapped by the Syrian government.

In another development, though the situation remains relatively calm in Hama-based AlAydden Camp, the residents have been grappling with a tough cordon enforced by the regime army on the main access roads out of and into the shelter. Abrupt break-ins and abduction sweeps by the government troops have added bad to worse.

Residents of AlAydeen Camp have also been facing high rates of unemployment as hundreds have been laid off due to the security mayhem rocking the area. Therefore, survival for the majority of civilians sheltered in the camp has largely hinged on relief aids.
