Recent Updates

The Syrian security forces carried out an arrest campaign by a sudden checkpoint at the road of Khan Al Sheih camp in Damascus suburb, as they arrested 6 residents on last Wednesday, they are:

"Ayman Mahmoud Al Mousa", 23 years, an employee at AL Kiswa labs, "Ahmed Sami", 32 years, a driver, "Moayad Mohammed Saed", 37 years, a government employee, "Fadi Yasein Taha", 28 years, "Mohammed SulaimanMousa", 27 years, a driver, while our correspondent pointed out that the 8th detainee couldn't be identified after his family refused to reveal his name for fear of his life, as they think. Our correspondent added that the checkpoint members released two residents after being detained for four hours, as "Samir Hasan Marzouq", 34 years, from Khan Al Sheih camp, was missed about two weeks ago and no information about him yet.

In the same context, artillery shells targeted the vicinity of Khan Al Sheih camp, while the explosion sounds were heard clearly inside the camp, which led to a state of anxious among the residents who are suffering of severe living crises due to the deteriorated security situation at the surrounding areas.

A resident of the camp reported news, to the AGPS, about a campaign of accurate searching of all passengers, cars, and busses, which are heading to the camp, and confiscated the food supplies they have, by the members of AL Mash'ham checkpoint of the regular army at Kawkab city. According to a passenger testimony, the checkpoint members searched the bread packs then they gave the owner of the pack only 8 loaves and confiscated the rest of the pack.

Meanwhile, warplanes carried out two raids at AL Hajar Al Aswad neighborhood adjacent to the besieged Yarmouk camp in Damascus, resulted in strong explosion sounds were heard clearly inside the camp. It is mentioned that about 20,000 residents still under strict siege imposed by the regular army and groups of PFGC for 545 days respectively, while they complain of the suspension of entering urgent food aids for about 4 weeks.

Meanwhile, the AGPS has documented the data of 158 Palestinian refugees who were killed till the end of 2014 due to the lack of nutrition and medical care because of the continuous siege.

Yarmouk camp

The residents of AL Nairab camp in Aleppo are complaining of the scarcity of fuel, especially the diesel that is needed to operate the generators, forcing many residents to stop operating their generators. It is mentioned that the repeated power cut forced some residents to sell the power through their generators.

On the other hand, pro-Fatah Movement at Al Nairab camp commemorated its 50th anniversary, as they gathered and raised the movement flags and photos of the late Palestinian president "Yasser Arafat" and lights a torch of the 50th anniversary.
