Victims

Palestinian refugee Diab Mahmoud AlMukbil, a resident of Deraa Camp, was killed on April 1 as he took part in anti-government battles in AlMenshiya neighborhood, in Deraa AlBalad, south of Syria.

AGPS documented the death of 3,474 Palestinian refugees from Syria since the outburst of the deadly warfare.

Latest Developments

19 Palestinians were killed during March 2017, six among whom were fatally gunned down while three others died under shelling. Five Palestinians were pronounced dead due to the blockade and medical neglect; two were field-executed; two died in blasts, and another refugee was tortured to death in Syrian government jails.

Damascus topped the list with seven casualties, followed by Rif Dimashq and Aleppo, with four victims each. Three Palestinians were pronounced dead in Deraa and another died in an unidentified place.

In another development, ISIS militias on Sunday morning closed off a roadblock separating Yarmouk Camp from Yalda town for unidentified reasons. Schoolchildren and civilians trapped inside the camp were denied access out of and into the area through the roadblock.

At the same time, violent clashes burst out between ISIS and the opposition squads. Sounds of heavy blasts were also spotted near the AlUruba checkpoint, connecting Yalda to Yarmouk Camp. Injuries were reported on both sides.

Meanwhile, AGPS field reporter said the Palestinian refugee Burhan AlAbtah, a resident of Yarmouk, was hit and lightly wounded with a bullet fired by an ISIS sniper.

Civil Action Commissions

The Palestine Charity Commission operating in southern Syria, in cooperation with the Palestine Scholars Association and AlAqsa Companions, handed out 100 food baskets to a number of civilians displaced from Yarmouk Basin.

The charity, in partnership with Indonesian associations, further distributed 100 baskets to displaced and impoverished families in

AlMuzeireeb, along with orphan allowances to 92 orphan children, with an estimated sum of 25,000 SYP per every child.

Palestine Charity staff members further managed to broker a reconciliation agreement between the Palestinian AlSaytariya family and AlSawa'ed family, from the Golan Heights, after a girl was accidentally shot dead.

Meanwhile, a training course was staged by the Assembly of Palestinian Instructors from Syria in an attempt to boost the academic output of basic education enrollees among the displaced Palestinians from Syria in AlBadawi Camp, in the northern Lebanese city of Tripoli.

30 students have reportedly been registered for the course, which kicked off in February and will be concluded in April. The course is sponsored by the German Aid Foundation.
