Latest Developments

ISIS militias, who have seized large areas of Yarmouk Camp for Palestinian refugees in Damascus, executed four refugees, sources in the camp told AGPS.

The four casualties are identified as Mohamed Nassar and a refugee from Alyan family, along with another from AlTayeha family and two more refugees from Tahrir AlSham battalion. The security turmoil in the camp prevented AGPS correspondent from identifying the four names. Efforts have been underway by the group to reveal the victims' identities.

At the same time, AGPS quoted activists as stating that ISIS in southern Damascus issued orders to execute whoever is caught raising the Palestinian flag in ISIS-controlled zones.

Syrian national Shadi AlKhatib, taking shelter in Khan AlSheih Camp, was also released from a government detention center, a few days after he was kidnapped from his workplace.

125 Palestinian residents of Khan AlSheih Camp have been held in Syrian government penitentiaries, among a total of 1,169 Palestinian detainees, whose fate has been shrouded in mystery in Syrian penitentiaries.

In another development, Palestinian refugees from Syria who have been stranded in Greece have sounded distress signals after most European states opted for a closed-door immigration policy, leaving hundreds of refugees trapped in underequipped makeshift refugee camps in Greece.

Speaking with AGPS, Palestinian refugees in Greece said they have been subjected to medical neglect, poor hygiene, and over-crowdedness, along with the lack of relief assistance and the propagation of poisonous reptiles in the frayed tents they have been locked up in.

An agreement between Turkey and Greece to tighten grip on refugees from Syria trying to creep into the Greek territories via the Turkish borders has made the situation far worse.
