Recent Updates

The AGPS documentation and monitoring team announced that 22 Palestinian refugees died during last April, including 10 refugees died by a gunshot, 5 refugees died due to shelling, a refugee died due to torture in the Syrian Regime prisons, a refugee was assassinated, and a refugee died by a sniper shot.

The AGPS pointed out that the Palestinian refugees who died during last April were scattered according to the Syrian cities as follows: 8 refugees died in Damascus, 6 refugees died in Damascus suburb, 3 refugees died in Deraa Camp, 4 refugees died in Aleppo, and a refugee died in a Syrian city.

According to the AGPS documented statistics, the number of Palestinian refugees who died due to the ongoing war in Syria has reached 3215 victims.

A state of tension and conflict prevailed at the Yarmouk camp south of the Syrian capital of Damascus.

The AGPS reported confirmed that shelling and violent clashes broke out in the camp during the past two days between the Regular Army alongside the affiliated Palestinian groups and Al Nusra front.

Meanwhile, clashes and sniping are still continuous between ISIS and Al Nusra, while residents confirmed that ISIS managed to impose control over many areas was controlled by Al Nusra, which became very weak, as he described. The AGPS reported pointed out that the people of Yarmouk suffer of severe living conditions due to the lack of food, medication, and water.

Moreover, ISIS and Al Nusra were controlling almost 70% of the Yarmouk camp before they engaged in the conflict following the agreement that was signed between ISIS and the Syrian Regime which stated the withdrawal of ISIS from the southern area towards northern Syria..

Meanwhile, the Syrian regime released the Palestinian refugee, Wesam Jumaa, who is from Khan Dannon camp in Damascus suburb, yesterday, after he was detained for about a month. The Syrian security forces arrested each of Wesam Jumaa and Qasim Jarayan on 30th of April 2016, as they released Jumaa, while still detaining Jarayan.

The camp is full controlled by the Syrian Regime and its affiliated groups, while the residents suffer of the practices of Khan Dannon checkpoint's members who harassed people and confiscate their belongings while passing through the checkpoint.

In the same context, the Turkish authorities released the Palestinian refugee, Mohammed Qablawi, from Al Nairab camp after being detained for several months. He was arrested with three other refugees by the Interpol several months ago in charges of smuggling and money transfer. According to unofficial statistic, the number of Palestinian Syrian refugees ranged from 6000-8000 refuges scattered between Istanbul and governorates of middle and south of Turkey.

In Lebanon, the Palestinians of Syria Teachers League, in cooperation with the Students' Committee of the Palestinians of Syria Committee in Lebanon, carried out an intensive course for the ninth grade students who were displaced at Nahr Al Barid camp in Tripoli city South of Lebanon, the course will include scientific materials (math-physics-chemistry-science-English).

It is noteworthy that the number of Palestinian Syrian families who were displaced at Nahr Al Bared camp south of Lebanon has reached 350 families out of 12,000 Palestinian Syrian families have fled to Lebanon in order to escape the ongoing war in Syria.
