RECENT UPDATES

The AGPS' correspondent reported hundreds of PRS families running away towards Al-Yarmouk Valley and other places escaping the clashes between ISIS and the opposition forces.

Clashes have been intensified in Jillin and Saham Towns during the last few days, which forced part of the Palestinians families to seek safety in caves and tents in Al-Yarmouk Valley, while others headed to Al-Ajami Valley and Al-Muzireeb town, some of them remained homeless. Meanwhile, there were reports of tens of civilians killed due to shelling and clashes.

While in Daraa, children of the camp placed flours on the grave of their fellow "Ahmad Abdulaal" who was killed by the regime's sniper shots yesterday.

Abdulaal from Daraa Camp was not the first child to be killed in the war, as the AGPS has documented 196 Palestinian Children killed due to the war all over the country, as follows: 107 due to shelling, 14 due to sniper shots, 7 due to gunshots, 21 drowned, 17 due to car bombs, 24 due to siege and medical aid shortage, 1 was burned alive, 1 was suffocated, 1 was run over by car, and 1 was kidnaped and killed.

The monitoring and documentation team of the AGPS said the number of children victims is more likely to be higher than that, as the correspondents and the team are, sometimes, not able to verify the age of victims nor the incident itself as a result of the security condition and the risks in the field.

ARREST

The Syrian Security is still arresting the Palestinian young man “Ali Mahmoud Mahmoud” 33-year-old since 20 February 2014, from Al-Yarmouk camp, with no more information about him so far.

Regarding this, the AGPS is receiving lots of letters from families and relatives of Palestinian detainees and abductees, these letters and information are being documented, validated, and followed-up by checking out other sources of information for any relevant results.

NGOs

Palestine Charity Association held, yesterday, a psychological support activity dedicated to Palestinian children of Al-Yarmouk camp who were displaced to Yalda, Biet Saham and Babbila Towns.

The activity aimed to alleviate their suffering and help treating the psychological results of the war they witnessed over the last few years.

It is noteworthy that Palestine Charity Association continues to carry on its humanitarian programs which address the people of Al-Yarmouk camp either inside or outside the camp.
