Victims

Palestinian refugee Ibrahim Reda Samara was fatally gunned down at Saadullah AlJaberi square, in Aleppo, as he tried to defend a woman harassed by pro-government militias.

Ibrahim, a resident of AlNeirab Camp in Aleppo, is a volunteer at Liwaa AlQuds brigade, affiliated with the Syrian government forces.

Latest Developments

Displaced Palestinian families in northern Syria continue to rail against their tragic living conditions in the poorly-equipped Deir Ballout Camp.

The refugees leveled heavy criticism at UNRWA and the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO), along with other concerned NGOs, for failing to live up to their responsibilities as regards dozens of hopeless families taking shelter in Deir Ballout Camp.

The families called for the need to provide them with much-needed cash aids, medical items, and relief services.

Palestinian refugees sheltered north of Syria have been enduring a tragic situation. Most of them have been crammed in poorly-equipped tents and denied their rights to vital services.

In another development, Palestinian refugee from Syria Shadha Abu Weddou joined a hunger strike launched by a group of activists in London and other parts of the world to speak up against the abrupt killing of civilians north of Syria.

Shadha announced her hunger strike on her Facebook account, saying she will keep up the protest move in an attempt to push the mass media and human rights NGOs to mobilize solidarity with Syrian hunger striker Brita Hagi Hasan who has maintained vigil outside of the UN headquarters in Geneva to denounce the horrendous crimes perpetrated by Syria's incumbent regime and its Russian abettors against civilians north of Syria.

47 activists around the world have reportedly joined the hunger strike.

Meanwhile, the Palestinian Red Crescent Society at Haifa Hospital, in partnership with American Near East Refugee Aid (ANERA) announced the arrival of a group of American internists to carry out free medical checks for concerned patients on July 5.

Palestinian refugees from Syria in Lebanon will reportedly benefit from the move.

Nearly 28,000 Palestinian refugees from Syria seeking shelter in Lebanon have been subjected to dire socio-economic conditions and a precarious legal status as the Lebanese authorities continue to rebuff their appeals for legal visas and access to the local labor market.
