Recent Updates

AGPS reporter in Khan Al-Sheih asserted that aircrafts launched had 7 raids targeting the outskirts of the camp and surrounded farms, which led to material damages as well as fire in nearby fields.

He pointed that a house in Al Saeed St. was bombed during a series of airstrikes targeting parts of the camp.

The camp and its neighboring villages witnessed violent airstrikes by Syrian and Russian aircrafts using cluster and phosphorus bombs. In the same time, Syrian regime members on the barriers closed all the roads between the camp and the capital. As a result, there was a severe lack of basic and medical services.

In a different context, more than 8000 Palestinian-Syrian families immigrate to Qudsya in Damascus escaping from siege and bombings. They live a State of tension and panic due to the increasing military operations which targeted Al-Hamah.

The region is witnessing an unprecedented panic because it was targeted by shells and explosive barrels. Yesterday, one of those barrels was targeting Al-Hamah with a weight of 4 Kg. at least.

It led to an active movement of immigration towards the town with fears from transferring the military operations to Qudsya which endangers the lives of thousands. Because of acute lack of medical services as a result of the siege.

It's worth noting that Qudsya and Al-Hamah are being under the control of Syrian opposition armed groups and expose to repeatedly shelling and siege.

Turning to Aleppo, houses in Al- Neirab were bombed yesterday by mortars. One of the mortars hit a house causing material damages.

AGPS reporter said that the shells that fell on the camp were the result of violent clashes that erupted earlier between the pro-Syrian opposition armed groups Vs the regime's army and the Al-Quds Brigade Group. in Aziza front, Karam Al-Tarab and Al-Sheikh Lotfi neighborhoods beside the camp.

The camp is witnessing a state of instability and insecurity because of the tension in security situation in adjacent areas.

In Damascus, Yarmouk witnessed violent clashes erupted between Palestinian armed groups on the one hand, and regime's army with its affiliates from Palestinian factions.

Clashes were concentrated in Al-Rijah square and the court area with a number of mortar shells that didn't cause any casualties. ISIS still control around 70% of Yarmouk. In the same time, Syrian army and its Palestinian affiliates have laid a strict siege over Yarmouk camp for 1200 consecutive days.
