Recent Updates

The SRA checkpoints allowed the entry of some urgent food aids to the Yarmouk camp in Damascus after three months of preventing the entry of relief, food, or medical urgent aid which resulted in the death of 172 victims. It is mentioned that the aid distribution was in a new place; Palestine Street, while the camp is still besieged by the Syrian army and the Palestinian groups for 607 days respectively, power cut for more than 687 days, and the water cut for 177 days respectively.

Distributing urgent food aids in Yarmouk camp

The Syrian warplanes targeted the adjacent farms of Khan AL Shieh camp with a number of explosive barrels, resulting in a state of panic among the residents as a result of the huge explosion sounds. This shelling coincided with the hard living conditions due to the shortage of medical services, the high cost of living, and the transportations difficulty form and to the camp.

In Egypt, the Palestinian and the Syrian refugees who are detained in Egypt, Alexandria, Karmouz Prison are still continuing their hunger strike for 25 consecutive days which was started on Monday, 9th of last February, until they achieve their demands of being released and to urgently coordinate with the concerned bodies to receive them in the European countries where they families are.

It is mentioned that the detainees are living in a difficult situation, according to a detainee they were allowed, each 10 days, to go up to the roof of the building to have some fresh air as some of them were infected with skin diseases due to the joint unhealthy bathrooms.

The Egyptian authorities had arrested "56" Palestinian refugees from Syria while trying to reach Italy from the Turkish beaches 125 days ago, as they were victim to a scam by smugglers who left them on one of the islands off the Egyptian shores.

In Turkey, the Palestinians of Syria Committee in Turkey distributed quantities of meat to the Palestinian refugees in the shelter center at Kilis city in addition to some families in the city. It is noteworthy that the distribution was sponsored by the World Relief Organization and the Association of Road life.

It is noteworthy that about 3000 to 5000 Palestinian refugees were fled from the war in Syria and were distributed to a number of Turkish cities.

Turning to Austria, where about twenty Palestinians and Syria refugees protested at the gates of Volkshilfe institution in the city of Brauno, western Austria to protest against the delay of issuing their residency procedures.

Protesters demanded to rapidly decide on their cases that are stalled at "Court of Linz," where some of them had interviews in November last year.

During the sit-in they met the responsible for their cases who gave them an offensive respond, prompting them to sit-in and refused salaries assistance provided by Austria and refused to attend German language classes.

For their part, officials from the Diakonie Foundation, supervising the refugee housing, promised to go to Linz Court and find out the reasons for the delayed response to the interviews, and not granting them residencies.
