In another hand, "NatheirAkkam" from Handarat camp was also killed by a gun shot in Aleppo by the Regular Army members.

The Joint Press Conference

The AGPS, the Euro-Mid Observer, and the Syrian Network for Human Rights held a joint press conference addressed the latest updates in the Yarmouk camp. In the end of the conference the human rights organizations issued a press statement calling the UNRWA and the ICRC to open humanitarian corridors for the Yarmouk residents, and to coordinate with the Syrian security forces that besieged the camp in order to evacuate tens of injuries.

The statement also demanded the armed parties inside the camp, especially ISIS after it took control of over 80% of the camp, to neutralize the civilians as well as it warned of ISIS using civilians as revenge.

The statement called the UNHCR to put pressure on the Syrian Regime in order to protect the civilians and end their siege, for being the first responsible over their conditions.

The statement also called for urgently work in order to end this tragedy and to provide medication for the injuries.

The statement appealed the Security Council and the General Assembly of the United Nations to put humanitarian considerations of the situation in the Syrian territory, above any other consideration, and to take urgent action under the UN Charter on order to save the civilians and to stop the ongoing killings without humanity for the fifth year respectively.

For its part, the AGPS emphasizes that the humanitarian crisis in the Yarmouk refugee camp continuing to aggravate, and renewed its demand to the Palestinian, Arab, and Islamic official authorities and human rights organizations and institutions concerned with refugees to the need to move to put an end to the suffering of the Palestinian refugees in Yarmouk.

Recent Updates in the Yarmouk Camp

Heavy shelling targeted different areas of the Yarmouk camp yesterday evening causing substantial material damage, while sporadic clashes between ISIS groups and Aknaf brigades are still continue, where activists confirmed to the AGPS that Aknaf brigades positioning behind the cultural center in the camp, while ISIS failed to impose its control over the entire camp, as it still controls 80% of the camp.

Shelling targeted the Yarmouk camp

News reported that ISIS kidnapped nearly 70 civilians, but the group was unable to assure the news because of the tense situation.

The humanitarian situation inside the camp continues to deteriorate, where all medical materials ran out from the camp, as dozens of relief organizations' activists headed to the nearby town of Yalda, for fear of being kidnapped by ISIS groups.

The UNRWA spokesman confirmed that 94 civilians, including 43 women and 20 children were evacuated from the camp on Sunday and provided them with humanitarian aid.

Interaction with the Tragedy of Yarmouk

Solidarity vigils were implemented in each of Ramallah, Gaza, Shatila refugee camp in Lebanon, the Jordanian capital, Amman, and the Turkish city of Istanbul. The protestors demanded the Palestinian official institutions, the international organizations, human rights organizations, and refugees' institutions to move quickly in order to save the people of the Yarmouk refugee camp.
