Recent Updates

The Yarmouk camp, south of the capital Damascus , witnessed yesterday evening a new series of bombing by explosive barrels in which 9 explosive barrels fall in different parts of the camp from which the Al-Yarmouk main street near Falafel Tebah; Street 15, western Yarmouk Street, causing the death of the Palestinian refugee "Tamer Mohammed" and the fall of wounded.

The besieged Yarmouk camp is still including thousands of civilians in light of the continued siege of the Regular Army and PFGC for (827) days respectively, power outages for more than 897 days, water cut for 387 days respectively, and the continuous control of ISIS and Al-Nasrah front for about 70% of the camp.

In the south suburb of the capital Damascus, the received from Al-Saydah Zainab camp it may disturb the relative calmness. It was reported that Armed Groups of the Syrian Regime in Al- SayedaZainab district of Damascus southern suburb sieged Al- SayedaZeinab camp for Palestinian refugees and that those groups closed the roads leading to the camp.

Al- Saydah Zainab camp

This comes after a quarrel between a young man from the camp with a close confidant of those groups in Al- Sayeda Zeinab district who in his turn opened fire on the young and injury him seriously. This prompted one of the brothers of the young victim to fire on the patrol of the armed groups and to kill two of them. The news added that the loyal armed groups in the region mobilize its members to storm Al- Sayeda Zeinab camp for Palestinian refugees and to arrest the required among them. AGPS were not given the chance to make sure from the news from other sources.

The number of Palestinian refugees, according to the latest statistics in July 2013, is about 26 774 distributed into 6214 families and neighbored by Al- Sayeda Zeinab district which is resided by mainly pro-Syrian regime.
