Victims

Another Palestinian refugee was tortured to death in Syrian state prisons, bringing the number of Palestinian victims of torture in government jails to 611.

AGPS has kept the casualty's name secret at his family's request.

Latest Developments

Activists from Daraa Camp for Palestinian refugees have accused pro-government forces in Syria of circulating leaflets to defame local residents and stir up sedition between government affiliates and former opposition groups.

“All Iranian forces and militias along with their allies should leave Daraa Camp in no more than 72 hours”, the circulated admonition read.

The residents voiced deep concern over simmering tension-rousing propagandas against Syria's Daraa Camp for Palestine refugees.

AGPS documented the secret detention of 42 Palestinian refugees sheltered in Daraa Camp, south of Syria, from March 2011 until mid-October 2019 in Syrian government jails.

Over 600 Palestinian families taking shelter in Daraa Camp, south of Syria, have been subjected to dire conditions due to the lack of vital services, including health care, and medicine shortage.

Along the same line, Palestinian refugee Firas Rafe', in his 30s of age, was arrested by Syrian government forces a few days earlier.

An AGPS field reporter attributed the abduction to the alleged theft-property assaults carried out by Firas, a resident of Aleppo's AlNeirab refugee camp, in nearby villages.

The arrestee is reportedly affiliated with the pro-government Liwaa AlQuds squad in Syria.

Sometime earlier, Palestinian refugee Samer Rafe', commander of the pro-government Liwaa AlQuds brigade, was arrested by government troops following a shootout with a government gunman at a checkpoint in Latakia.

Residents of AlNeirab Camp said ill-famed Samer Rafe' was once arrested on charges of armed robbery and property theft in Aleppo. His fate remains unknown.

Meanwhile, Palestinian engineer Wahdan Abdullah AlRawashdeh has been enduring a mysterious fate in Syrian government prisons, where he has been locked up for seven years running.

Wahdan was kidnapped from his home in Jdeidat Artouz, in Rif Dimashq, on January 3, 2013. He is a retired colonel from the Palestine Liberation Army (PLA) in Syria.

AGPS kept record of the names of 1,768 Palestinians, including 108 women and girls, secretly incarcerated in Syrian regime penitentiaries, where over 600 refugees also died under torture.
