Recent Updates in the Yarmouk Camp

United Nations Security Council on Monday demanded to allow humanitarian aid to enter the Yarmouk Palestinian refugee camp, where ISIS groups control large parts of it, amid Palestinian warning of "genocide," and deterioration in the humanitarian situation.

The Council called, in an emergency session to discuss the situation in the Yarmouk refugee camp, to protect civilians and ensure humanitarian aid access, including the necessary life-saving assistance, "according to the Ambassador of Jordan at the Security Council Dina Kawar, which her countryheadsthe Council this month."

The UN warned of a "terrible" humanitarian attitude for about 18 thousand Palestinians, including 3,500 besieged children inside the camp.

On the same context, heavy shelling targeted the Yarmouk camp yesterday, where huge explosions rocked different parts of it, causing huge material damage with no news about injuries.

Sporadic clashes broke out between the Aknaf brigades and ISIS groups who broke into the camp (6) days ago, without changing areas controlled by each of them, where ISIS groups are still control (80%) of the camp.

In terms of the human side, medical situation continu eto deteriorate, where treatment is not available for dozens of wounded due to running out of medical supplies from inside the camp, and under the tension conditions in the camp were (975) family from the Yarmouk camp were displaced where they are currently in the nearby town of Beit Sahem.

Interaction with the Yarmouk Refugee Camp

During his participation at the seminar of Palestinian refugees and the protection demands, which was held by PRC in the Lebanese city of Tripoli, the AGPS member "Maher Shaweish" called all conflict parties to expedite the convening of a humanitarian truce, calling to open a passage for the relief of civilians with international guarantees supervised by the International Red Cross and UNRWA, stressing the need to neutralize the Palestinians of the internal conflict, stressing that the refugees in Syria are guests and it is necessary for them to maintain their camps as the title to the right of return.

The seminar of Palestinian refugees and the protection demands

For his part, the regional coordinator for the Palestinian Return Centre in the Arab region "Ali Huwaidi" stressed the need for "UNRWA" to expand its policies, including the physical protection for refugees, calling to take advantage of membership "observer" to the State of Palestine to the United Nations to coordinate with states Members.

Moreover, the Palestinian institution for human rights "Shahid", issued a statement addressed the deteriorated medical situation in the Yarmouk camp, confirming that the inaction of protecting the Palestinian refugees in the Yarmouk camp will accelerate the termination of their presence in Syria.

The statement emphasized that the Palestinian presence in Syria has become endangered, and the failure to protect the people of the Yarmouk camp will accelerate ending the issue of Palestinian refugees in the diaspora, particularly in Syria, while the statement concluded by calling for neutralizing civilians and respect the rules of war in local conflicts, particularly Additional Protocol II to The four Geneva agreements of 1949, calling for the Syrian government to the need to open ports to enter the humanitarian relief assistance to the civilians.

The statement called all non-Palestinian armed groups to leave the Yarmouk refugee camp, and to avoid the Palestinian refugee camps for the furnace of the conflict in Syria. In addition, Yarmouk camp or any other camp should not be an anchor for attacks against the Syrian government forces, and that the UNRWA to take more dynamic and effective role in order to help Palestinian refugees in Yarmouk.

The statement also stressed the need to have an effective international action through the International Committee of the Red Cross and other international organizations, and the PLO to assume its national serious role toward the Palestinian refugee camps in general and the Yarmouk refugee camp in particular, and to declare the national emergency.

The Palestinian and national factions called for united actions to neutralize the Yarmouk camp, warning of continued violating towards the Palestinians in Syria, according to a statement issued after a meeting at the headquarters Islamic Jihad Movement in Gaza to discuss the events and developments in the Yarmouk refugee camp in the Syrian capital of Damascus.

The national forces demanded all conflict parties in Syria to spare the Palestinians the ravages of internal conflict, stressing that the blood of our people will not be cheap in any way, calling for immediate withdrawal and the release of detainees and kidnapped people as soon as possible.

The United Nations, the international community, and all its institutions also called to do its part to stop the suffering of the camp massacres, stressing that the only way to save our people is the establishment of an independent Palestinian state with Jerusalem as its capital and the return of refugees to their homes.

In the same context, the Arab League demanded the international community to intervene immediately to ensure not involving the Yarmouk and the Palestinian refugee camps in the ongoing conflict in Syria without the well of the inhabitants and completely neutralize them the scourge of the clashes.

The Arab League said in a statement issued by the Palestine and the occupied Arab territories sector, that they follow-up with anxiety and anticipation of serious conditions and deteriorating suffered by the Palestinian refugees in Syria, who are estimated with more than 500 thousand Palestinian refugees in light of the humanitarian attacks against them because of their involvement in the conflict , which increased blatantly recently following the groups that broke into the Yarmouk refugee camp during the past two days and turned it into a war zone, causing a humanitarian catastrophe.

On the other hand, solidarity vigils took place in Jerusalem, the Gaza Strip, Nablus, Nahr Al Barid camp, the German capital of Berlin, and the Swedish city of Malmo to show solidarity with their besieged families in the Yarmouk refugee camp, and who are exposing to violent bombardment by air and ground attack from ISIS.

The participants demanded the Palestinian, the international institutions, human rights organizations, the RCIC committees, and UNRWA for urgent action to put an end to the suffering of the people of the Yarmouk refugee camp, to end their siege, to stop the bombing, and to introduce emergency medical assistance to treat the wounded people.
