The Palestinian refugee Mohanned Hazza' from Daraa camp died during the ongoing clashes at AL Mansheyya neighborhood at Daraa city between the Regular Army and the Opposition groups. It is referred that the AGPS documented about 2013 victims from Daraa camp most of them died due to bombing, explosive barrels and rockets, where a number of the camp residents died during their participation in the ongoing conflict in Syria.

Recent Updates

The Syrian warplanes targeted Daraa camp for Palestinian refugees southern Syria with an explosive barrel which led to a number of injured people amongst residents, coincided with a violent bombing to the adjacent towns and areas.

The AGPS correspondent insured that the Syrian warplanes targeted different neighborhoods near Daraa camp with 15 explosive barrels within less than one hour, the correspondent mentioned that the southern area is being exposed to bombing by the Syrian warplanes since the Opposition groups in the southern front declared the beginning of the south storm battle in 25 June 2015 in order to control the areas that are still under the control of the Government forces in Daraa governorate.

Daraa camp

In a related context, the Regular Army targeted Al Huda mosque in Khan Al Sheih camp with a mortar shell that led to only material damages, according to an eye witness that the mosque was empty and if it was not empty a massacre would had happened. The roads cut continues between all roads that connect Khan Al Sheih camp with the adjacent areas except Zakia –Khan Al Sheih road due to the continuation of the clashes and bombing which the adjacent areas are targeted to.

At the Yarmouk camp south of Damascus, separate areas of the camp were targeted with shells which only led to material damages. The organizations and institutions inside the camp carried out a protest the day before in the occasion of the third anniversary for the siege that is imposed on the camp by the Regular Army and the Palestinian affiliated factions, where the protestors demanded to stop fire , open the road to the camp to enter the food aid and returning back the water , power and infrastructure services. The protestors also expressed their solidarity with the displaced Palestinians of Syria in Lebanon who are suffering of severe living situation. They also suffer of the UNRWA reduced services and the mistreatment by the Lebanese security authorities with the Palestinians of Syria file.

The protest in the Yarmouk camp

It is mentioned that the Regular Army imposed on summer 2012 a partial siege on the camp through setting checkpoints on the entrances, where it imposed a complete siege on July 2013. At that time, the Regular Army prevented the entry of food items, Gas, fuel, medical aid to the camp which led to a humanitarian disaster in the camp resulted in 177 refugee victims due to the siege and the lack of medical care.

In a different context, Al Wafa Relief Organization carried out the day before a project of a breakfast fasting at Al Muzareeb city southern Syria, where they packed and distributed the food meals on the residents who suffer of the siege of the Regular Army. The Organization also carried out a number of charity project at the Yarmouk camp and the other camps in Syria as to alleviate the war consequences on the Palestinian refugees in Syria.

The breakfast fasting project at Al Muzareeb

It is mentioned that about 8500 Palestinian refugees at Al Muzareeb compound suffer of the shortage of the food and medical materials and the high prices of the materials if they were available in addition to the continues targeting with explosive barrels and rockets that led to more than 30 victims and mass damages to the houses.

On the other hand, the AGPS documentation and monitoring team declared that the number of the Palestinians of Syria victims of Al Ramle camp at Latakia since the beginning of the events in Syria reached 20 victims including 11 victims due to torture, 2 victims due to sniping, 3 victims due to fire shooting, 2 victims due to murder after being kidnapped and a refugee victim due to a health crisis.

London

A public seminar in the House of Lords is expected to be held by the Palestine Return Centre (PRC) on “The Economic and Social Challenges facing Palestinian Refugees and the Search for Solutions”.

Speakers at the seminar, which is headed by Baroness Jenny Tonge, include Prof. Manuel Hassassian, Palestine's ambassador to the UK, Clare Short, politician and former Member of Parliament, Bill Brown, Vice Chair of Labour Friends of Palestine, Mr. Sameh Habeeb, the PRC Media and Public Relations Coordinator, and Sahdya Darr, a researcher at PRC, among others.

The seminar came in light of the increasing suffering of Palestinian refugees especially after the Syrian revolution, as thousands of refugees were forced to leave their refugee camps in Syria fleeing from the ongoing bloody events there.
