VICTIMS

The Palestinian man “Hasan Abu Allil” 37-year-old from Al-Nayrab camp was announced dead after being injured by shelling on Al-Bab town in Aleppo.

This incident brings up the total number of Palestinian victims to 3199 since the beginning of the war in Syria.

RECENT UPDATES

Al-Yarmouk camp has witnessed mutual clashes and sniping between ISIS and Al-Nusra. Both of the fighting parties have raised blinding curtains on roads' intersections, dug holes through the walls and shops in Lubiya street to facilitate the mobility across neighborhoods away from sniper shots.

Clashes have taken place at the 15th street, Haifa, Jaouna, and Safad streets inside the camp, where ISIS is trying to cut the supply-routes of Al-Nusra Front.

Activists said, at least one youth was shot by a sniper near Abdulqader Al-Hossayni Mosque. While ISIS managed to impose its control over Al-Orouba barrier which divides the Al-Yarmouk from Yalda Town. In the meantime, unremitting attempts is going on to end the tension.

Activists reported two youths affiliated to the Al-Nusra executed by ISIS after being arrested from Al-Qadam Neighborhood.

it is noteworthy that ISIS and Al-Nusra Front had imposed their mutual control over the camp since April 2015 after eliminating Al-Aknaf Brigades. While the Syrian regime is still besieging the camp for 1027 days, cutting electricity for 1088 day, and water for 577 days.

In Damascus Countryside, Khan Eshieh camp were exposed to sporadic shelling launched, according to activists, from Al-Kabousiyya hill where the regime's troops are positioned.

This shelling was followed by heavy machineguns bursts which caused a fire to break out in one of the houses near the camp's graveyard, and injured a woman.

In Eastern Gota of Damascus Countryside, the conscript "Omar Ahmad Al-Naji" from PLA was injured during clashes.

Al-Naji, who is a resident of Handarat Camp in Aleppo, got his injury in clashes between the regime and the opposition forces.

This incident comes after a similar one few days ago, when four Palestinian conscripts were killed during fighting alongside the regime's army, raising the total PLA victims to 172 since the beginning of the war.
