Victims

Palestinian refugees Ahmed Mohamed Ibrahim and Anwar Nayef AlKhatib, from the Palestine Liberation Army (PLA), were pronounced dead in fights waged against ISIS in AlSuweida desert, south of Syria.

AGPS documented the death of 240 Palestinians as they fought alongside the PLA in war-torn Syria, mostly in Rif Dimashq.

Latest Developments

Over 40,000 Palestinian refugees who fled their homes as a result of the heavy shelling on opposition-led areas have been enduring dire humanitarian conditions south of Syria

AGPS reporter said residents of Daraa Camp and AlMuzeireeb town, in Daraa's western outskirts, have gone homeless.

The price leap has made the situation far worse as children's milk, sugar, flour, and pulses are sold at steep prices. Diesel prices have gone up as high as 500 SYP a liter while fuel prices have hit 1,500 SYP per liter. A gas cylinder is sold at 10,000 SYP.

The crisis has affected Daraa Camp just as it has done AlMuzeireeb town, Jilin, Tel Shehab, and AlAjami, where relief assistance has gone almost suspended.

The Commission of Palestinians of Syria for Relief and Development in Daraa called on the Palestine Liberation Organization and all other concerned bodies to take urgent action as regards the situation of Palestinian refugees in the embattled Syrian territories.

In appeals emailed to AGPS, the commission said the recent escalation in and around Daraa, home to over 40,000 registered and unregistered refugees, made the situation quite unbearable.

Meanwhile, AGPS correspondent said the Syrian government forces and their war abettors targeted on Friday morning AlMuzeireeb town, south of Syria, with mortar shells, inflicting heavy material damage on civilian homes.

Thousands of Palestinians who were forced out of their homes in AlMuzeireeb and Daraa camp due to the escalation of hostilities in the area have been facing a calamitous humanitarian situation.

In another development, Ambassador Anwar Abdul Hadi, the director of the Political Department of the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO), honored instructors volunteering in Yarmouk Camp and Yalda town.

Financial rewards and certificates of appreciation were offered to the instructors in recognition of their sacrifices and efforts to teach students in war-ravaged zones.

“You are the ones who carry the torch of knowledge. We appreciate your great efforts, thanks to which our students achieved excellent results and topped lists of laureates across the Syrian territories”, stated Abdul Hadi.
