Recent Updates

The Kokab checkpoint of the Regular Army arrested 22 Palestinians from Khan Al Shieh camp and according to a testimony of the residents of the camps, they said, " the Syrian Army at the Kokab checkpoint forced their bus to stop and told the passengers to get out and they took the bus to unknown destinations, they also insured that the number of the detainees is 22 young men from the camp's residents". On the other hand, the adjacent areas and farms were exposed to violent bombing by the Regular Army artillery shells and in contrary the Syrian Opposition bombed the location of the Regular Army forces no. 137 with mortar shells. It is worthy to mention that the AGPS documented 60 detainee's names from the Khan Al Shieh camp and 15 victims due to torture in the Syrian Army prisons.

In the same context, the Yarmouk camp for the Palestinian refugees south of Damascus was exposed to bombing with a number of mortar shells without injuries, coincided with the broke out of night confrontations in the conflict areas between the Regular Army with the Palestinian factions loyal to it and the Opposition groups. A number of food parcels were distributed yesterday at Yeldatown, which surrounds the Yarmouk camp, on the Yarmouk residents by the Syrian Red Crescent Society.

The Regular Army and the PFGC are still imposing a strict siege on the Yarmouk camp for 583 days respectively in addition to the continuation of power cut for more than 663 days and water cut for 153 days respectively, where the number of victims reached 165 victims.

On the other side, a delegation from UNRWA yesterday visited Al Huseineia camp to supervise its facilities and to assess the damages. The delegation declared that the damages that affected its facilities are not huge and they will start to rehabilitate Qalqilia School to let the students return back to study. It is mentioned that the Regular Army prevents the residents of Al Huseineia camp to return back to their houses for 485 days under the pretext of securing the area. This comes in the time that the residents of the camp, who left to the surrounding areas and towns, suffer of severe living crises due to the continuation of the ongoing conflict in Syria.

Al Ramdan camp, which is located in the southern east of Damascus 50 Km away from Damascus and 9km far from Al Dameer city, suffers of sever living crises due to the reflection of the ongoing conflict in Syria on the refugees that led to the spread of unemployment amongst its residents and the severe shortage of food materials, medicine and fuel in addition to the high cost of rent houses.

In Dar'aa south of Syria, Dar'aa camp for Palestinian refugees is still exposed to warplanes raids, artillery shells and rocket launchers, which led to mas destructions in the houses and properties. On the other side, the residents complain from the deteriorated living situation and the continuation of water cut all over the camp for 300 days respectively, in addition to the power and telecommunication cut for long periods.

Civil Work Committees

The International Relief Organization in coordination with the General Authority for the Palestinian refugees in Syria distributed financial aids to the displaced Palestinians from Syria in Kilis City in Turkey for houses rent; the amount of money is to pay the rent of the houses for a month. The IRO also distributed bread on the Palestinian families in Kilis city for three months respectively. It is mentioned that thousands of Palestinian refugees fled from Syria to Turkey due to the bombing of their camps and the involvement of the camps in the ongoing conflict in Syria.

Statistics

The Action Group for Palestinians of Syria documented about 44 victims during the second half of 2014 due to the bombing of the Palestinian camps and compounds which led to displaced Palestinian refugees' victims who left their camps for more safe areas.

The victims of bombing were distributed as Dar'aa and its towns 15 victims due to explosive barrels, 10 victims from the Yarmouk camp and AL Hajar Al Aswad area, 7 victims from Khan Al Shieh camp, 2 victims in Damascus Suburb such as Duma, Al wafdein camp, refugee victim at Aleppo, 5 victims at Homs 4 of them from Al Waerr and Al Khames neighborhood in Hasyaa area, 3 victims, from the Palestinian camps at Syria, in Gaza during the Israeli aggression on the Gaza Strip on summer of 2014 two of them are from the Yarmouk camp.

Egypt

The AGPS received news about that there are about 50 Palestinian and Syrian Refugees detained by the Egyptian forces at the New Cairo Airport. The Information referred to that the Egyptian Security took all the mobile phones and all communication means to not contact the mass media people, human rights organizations and UNHCO to hide their detention details. The information added that there are a number of Palestinians of Syria refugees detained in the Airport prison since more than 6 months. The AGPS was not able to make sure of the information truth from another source.

This comes after Palestinian and Syrian refugees, who are detained at Karmouz prison in Alexandria Egypt, declared their open hunger strike starting from yesterday 9th of Feb.2014 till they achieve their demands that are to immediately coordinate with the concerned parties for receiving them in the European countries, which their families are in,. The strike also comes as a response to the carelessness of the International and humanitarian organizations toward their case after passing 100 days in the detention prison. It is mentioned that they are treated as prisoners and so far from the humanitarian treatment.
