Lebanon

Lebanese authorities have prevented one of Palestinian Syrian mothers of entry into Lebanon in order to take the last look at her son's corpse, who died in Lebanon. In details, they prevented Yousif Mohamed Shmanden Hussein's mother from Husseiniyeh camp, that passed away the day before. Yousif died during the blood transfusion in the government hospital near the Beddawi camp and mentions that he was suffering from Thalassemia.

The border officers refused to allow the mother to enter Lebanon because she is a Palestinian of Syria, which deprived the bereaved mother bid farewell to the body of her son, and mentions that recently, the Lebanese authorities have issued several resolutions barred the entry of Palestinian refugees of Syria into its territory. The Lebanese authorities also bothered the Palestinians of Syria residing in its territory through not renewing their residency, arrests and deportation to Syria.

On the other hand, Mrs. Frederica Mogorena, Italy Foreign Minister, visited Borj Barajneh camp for Palestinian refugees in order to see the Palestinians refugees situation in Lebanon, in addition to the Palestinians of Syria who residents there. This has been accompanied by the Italian Ambassador in Lebanon, "Josepah Morabito, "and the director general of the Foreign Ministry, where he was greeted by Ambassador of the State of Palestine in Lebanon," Ashraf wasp "and the Director-General of UNRWA," Ann Desmor "and the popular committees in the camp. The Italian Minister listened to the most important problems and issues experienced by the Palestinian refugees in Lebanon.

The Palestinian ambassador called the international community to endorse the Palestinian right to independence freedom and return. The ambassador also thanked the Italian government on the donation through the Italian Ambassador and the Italian Embassy in Nahr El Bared Refugee camp for their contribution of compensation for the partially damaged houses. Mr. Dabour continued "You are ambassadors of humanity."

UNRWA called the Palestinian families of Syria in Lebanon to receive their financial aid and that from 10 to 20 June. UNRWA emphasized that the families who are to benefit from these aids are big families which contain 6 people and the families that contain old people and young persons who are under the age of 18.
