Recent Updates

The Syrian warplanes launched two air strikes yesterday on the Yarmouk camp south of Damascus. The air strikes targeted the vicinity of Safareyyat Al Karmel area in Al Ouroba Street that resulted in a number of wounded amongst the civilians and a mass destruction in houses, then mortal shells targeted same place that was targeted previously by the warplanes.

It is worth mentioning that the Syrian Opposition Forces control the majority of the camp that the Syrian Regime and the PFGC besieged since 417 days respectively. The siege led to 156 people who died due to the starvation and the lack of medical materials in the previous months. On the other side, UNRWA continues to distribute food aids to the residents of the Yarmouk camp. The baskets also contained bread and children milk.

The destruction in Yarmouk refugee camp

The eastern vicinity of Khan Al Sheih camp in Damascus city was targeted with a number of shells on the Nastla Street, the Vicinity of farmers and the medicine factory, coincided with warplanes hovering and heavy clashes between the Opposition and the Regular army on the Dorosha and Al Salam Road crossings.

Al Nairab camp residents live in instability and unsafe state because of the security situation deterioration in the surrounding areas due to the participation of its residents in the fighting "Al Quds Brigade" with the Syrian Army against the Opposition groups. It was recorded yesterday the release of Belal Omar, Mohamed Anwar Abu Hashem, Ahmed Ayyoub, Mohammed Yousif Qassem and Husam, who were arrested in Ezzaz area by Groups loyal to the Opposition while they were trying to reach Turkey.

Khan Danoun in Damascus city residents live in miserable situations, where it receives hundreds of displaced people of other camps. The residents suffer of living crises especially in t fuel, food and high prices. The residents still complain of the inhumane treatment by the Regular Army checkpoints groups where they book some personal stuff that the residents carry.

Egypt

The Egyptian Security detains 80 Palestinian Syrian refugees including 5 women and 25 children in Hamsa Prison in Al Daqahleyya , Al Mansoura Governorate on charge of trying to immigrate illegally. It is worth mentioning that earlier the Egyptian Security arrested dozens of Palestinian and Syrian refugees under the pretext of illegal immigration in the boats that are launched from the Egyptian beaches to Europe.

Release

Dr. Asem Al Shehabi from Al Aedin Camp in Homs was released after being arrested for several weeks.

Civil Work Committees

The Palestine Charity Commission presented 50 school bags to Al Amal Kindergarten as a contribution for the education process with providing them with all stuff that they need to join the schools.

UNRWA

The UNRWA in Lebanon decided to merge the Palestinians of Syria with the Palestinians of Lebanon students. The decision has so many negative impacts on the Palestinian refugees who were displaced from Syria to Lebanon; the curriculum is the most important deference, the language of the curriculums and the crowd of school rooms which is already crowded, where they will increase 7500 Palestinians of Syria students.

he merging will end the contracts of dozens of school teachers. It is worth mentioning that the UNRWA followed the procedures of putting the students in an afternoon time” Double School Time Hours”, and the UNRWA contracted daily contracts teachers.

Lebanon

A number of Palestinian refugees from Syria in Lebanon performed a sit-in in front of the UNHCR yesterday in Beirut to include them in UNHCR program and to express their anger from the UNRWA services.

The sit-in in front of the UNHCR

In the same context, dozens of Palestinians of Syria refugees in Lebanon performed a protest in front of Al Baddawi camp services directors' office where the protestors demand the UNRWA to provide them of what they need of rapid aids to face the challenges of their displacement from Syria. The refugees raised a memorandum to the UNRWA Director in Lebanon to call for him to accredit an emergency plan in addition to securing medicines and treatment, the refugees also demanded the UNRWA to make the students school registration for free and provide financial aids to the poor families in its determined time. On the other hand, the Human Charity for Relief and Development in Sour city implement a project of Clothes distribution for poor and displaced families from Syria in Al Esraa Sport Club in Al Shobreha south of Lebanon on 5th of September 2014.
