Recent Updates

A number of heavy mortar shells targeted different areas of Deraa camp south of Syria the day before yesterday, causing no damages. Meanwhile, residents of the camp are still suffering due to the absence of relief and health services, as they did not receive any aid for more than two years.

70% of the camp's buildings were completely and partially destroyed due to the frequent shelling with most types of rockets, missiles, and explosive barrels.

Furthermore, 16 explosive barrels targeted different areas at the outskirts of Khan Al Shieh camp in the western suburb of Damascus yesterday.

The shelling came in light of the Regular Army continuous closing of all roads linking the camp with the adjacent areas and towns including Zakia-Khan Al Shieh road, which was targeted continuously with machineguns.

Closing the roads deteriorated the humanitarian and health situation, while residents were prevented from health and emergency services almost completely, in addition to the severe shortage of basic materials; such as bread.

For their part, dozens of residents appealed all relief institutions in Syria to urgently provide the besieged refugees with aid relating to medication and baby milk.

The Syrian Security forces arrested the Palestinians female refugee, Mariam Rashdan-Em Ahmed, while she was passing through Koukab checkpoint adjacent to Khan Al Shieh camp in the western suburb of Damascus. Contact was lost with her for two months before knowing that she is detained at the Regime security prisons. Mrs. Rashdan is a widow and has 4 children; she is a teacher at the UNRWA schools in Khan Al Shieh camp.

The AGPs documented the names of 108 detainees from Khan Al Shieh camp, while the total toll of the Palestinian detainees, since the beginning of war in Syria, has reached 0175 detainees.

Lebanon

Dozens of Palestinian Syrian refugees in Lebanon organized a sit-in in front of the UNRWA's headquarter in Beirut, expressing anger regarding UNRWA's policy, since UNRWA decreased its services and aid, especially the rent allowances.

The number of Palestinian Syrian refugees in Lebanon has exceeded 42.500 refugees, who are suffering of unclear legal situation and cruel living conditions, as the job opportunities is very rare and the houses' rent is very high.
