Victims

The 10-year-Palestinian girl, Nariman Issam Rustom, died and her father was injured after unknown group opened fire towards their car at Al Shiekh Saad town north of Deraa while heading to visit their relatives. They were displaced from Deraa town to Muzaireeb area in Deraa suburb.

The southern area of Syria is witnessing killings and assassinations implemented by unknown groups, in light of clashes and assassinations among the armed opposition groups and some pro-ISIS groups. The clashes resulted in a great displacement, especially at Sahem Golan, Heit, and Gillin, as the clashes affected hundreds of Palestinian refugees.

The Palestinian refugee, Ahmed Mohammed Nijma, died during clashes that broke out in the besieged Yarmouk camp south of the capital Damascus. He is a member of the military wing of the so-called 'Free Palestine Movement.'

it should be noted that some of the Palestinian factions and Syrian security branches have formed armed groups who are fighting against the armed opposition groups in several parts of Syria, and attracts dozens of young Palestinians to be sent to the battlefield.

Recent Updates

The death toll of torture victims of Palestinian refugees in the Syrian prisons, which is documented by the AGPS, rose to (445) victims since the beginning of the war in Syria. The AGPS documented (4) refugees who died since the beginning of this month, in addition to (17) refugees who died since the beginning of 2016. Meanwhile, (77) victims were recognized through the leaked images of the victims of torture.

Dozens of refugees died due to torture, while the Syrian security delivered their ID papers to their families who refuse to disclose their children's names for maintaining their residence within the regime controlled areas, and fearing the wrath of the Syrian security forces. Some released detainees confirmed the death of some Palestinian refugees without disclosing their names.

The AGPS documented (1077) Palestinian refugees who are detained in the Syrian prisons, including 61 women who are unaccounted for. Children, women, elderly, brothers, fathers, sons, entire families, and babies are detained in the prisons of the Syrian regime. According to the testimonies of some released detainees, the Palestinian refugees in the Syrian security branches are exposed to all forms of torture and humiliation, from beatings and electric shocks and rape.

The AGPS called for the release of the Palestinian refugees who are detained in the regime's prisons and to reveal their fate, believing that what is happening in Syrian prisons is considered as a crime by all standards.

Civil Work Committees

Palestine Charity Committee implemented a summer club for the children of Muzaireeb town south of Syria, in an attempt to alleviate the psychological stress for those children who are suffering of scourge of war and harsh living conditions.

The summer club includes many recreational and cultural activities.

About (8500) Palestinian refugees are living in Muzaireeb town, in addition to hundreds of Palestinian families who were displaced from Deraa camp, are living in severe living conditions due to the repeated shelling, in addition to the non-arrival of any of the UNRWA aid
