Latest Developments

The Syrian government forces on Sunday struck blockaded Yarmouk Camp with Doushka heavy machinegun. No casualties were reported in the onslaught.

One day earlier, Yarmouk's outer edges and AlTadhamun Neighborhood had been targeted with surface-to-surface missiles and artillery shells.

In another development, a Syrian military police defector arrived in Holland with 28,000 horrific photos showing thousands of people who were tortured to death in government penitentiaries.

The English-speaking Daily Mail newspaper quoted a Dutch official as stating that the breakaway smuggled SD memory cards in his socks before he seeped out to Holland.

In April 2014, nearly 55,000 images of 11,000 victims of torture, including women and children, were leaked by a military police photographer, codenamed Caesar.

Following a probe launched by AGPS into Caesar's leaked snapshots, the group identified 77 victims as Palestinian refugees.

Meanwhile, Palestinian resident of Aleppo-based Handarat Camp, Amjad Mahmoud Mootassem, has been held in Syrian government prisons for the third year running.

Mootassem was kidnapped by the Syrian regime troops in November 2014 from AlMasna' area, on his way back from Lebanon.

AGPS documented the incarceration of 1,174 Palestinian refugees in Syrian regime penitentiaries, among whom 86 female refugees.

Civil Action Commissions

A celebration was staged by the Jarfra Foundation for Relief and Youth Development, in partnership with UNRWA-run Jaramana School, to honor students for academic brilliance.

Jaramana Camp is home to hundreds of Palestinian families who fled their shelters for fear of being killed under shelling.

Palestinians of Syria: March 12, 2017 Statistics:

- At least 3,459 Palestinians, including 455 women, were killed in war-torn Syria.
- 1,175 Palestinian refugees, including 83 women, are incarcerated in Syrian government lock-ups.
