Recent Updates

Three members of the Civil Defense in the besieged Yarmouk camp were wounded the day before yesterday, after being targeted by snipers shot in front of their headquarters near the Yarmouk cemetery at Al Taqadom neighborhood. They were transferred to the "Shaheid Al Mihrab" hospital in the town of Yalda to receive necessary medical treatment.

The medical staff at the hospital reported that one of the injuries in critical condition, where the shot entered his stomach, leading to several injuries in the spleen, pancreas, and multiple injuries in the intestine and the chest through the diaphragm. The hospital assured that the other injuries are in the limbs, one of them is, Khaled Alian, a member of Palestine hospital cadre .

The civil defense members accused Jaish Al Islam faction of targeting the three members, yet the faction denied the accusation under the pretext that the snipers of the faction do not overlook at the Yarmouk new cemetery area.

Meanwhile, Shan Al Rasoul Brigade, an armed opposition group, issued a statement through Facebook announcing complete cancelation of the agreement regarding the support of the Yarmouk camp. The statement was issued after some signatories to the previous statement broken the fifth item, as they prevent exit or entry of any member of Sham Al Rasoul brigade.

The fifth item, which was mentioned at the Sham Al Rasoul's statement, states "not allowing any member of Al Nusra Front to enter (Babila-Yalda-Bait Sahem) and the brigade is not responsible of any member who enters to these areas. That was one of the six items agreed upon among the military factions and the towns of (Babila-Yalda-Bait Sahem) within an agreement allows the entry of fighters who want to fight alongside Al Nusra at Masbah Al Basel area between the Yarmouk camp and Yalda town that is fighting against ISIS.

Clashes between ISIS and Nusra are still ongoing in the Yarmouk camp, coinciding with the continuous siege imposed by the Regular Army and the affiliated groups for 1062 consecutive days, power cut for more than 1123 days, and water cut for 612 days respectively.

On the other hand, Syrian warplanes dropped targeted Al Mazarea area between Al Qosour area and Darousha at the vicinity of Khan Al Shieh camp in the western suburb of Damascus with 4 explosive barrels. The Regular Army targeted the eastern vicinity of the camp with a number of artillery shells resulted in a state of panic among residents. Many residents were killed due to the shelling, including women and children, while the AGPS documented 153 victims who died since the beginning of the war events.

The AGPS correspondent in Khan Al Shieh camp reported that families are suffering of dire conditions, as a large number of youth are unemployed and always rely on aid provided by UNRWA and some relief organizations, since most residents live in an almost completely besieged area. The organizations provide insufficient aid for a small number of families, while UNRWA provides them with aid every two or three months.

Our correspondent noted that bread, food, and fuel are also available at the black market. Those materials enter through Zakia adjacent town at very high prices as a result of the closing Zakia road, which is the only road that serves 2000 families.

Checkpoints of the regular army are still closing all roads linking the camp with the center of the capital Damascus, forcing residents to go through the dangerous sub-road of Zakia to reach Damascus.

The Syrian Regime targeted Handarat camp in Aleppo south of Syria with heavy artillery and rocket shelling, coinciding with violent clashes between the Syrian armed opposition groups and the Regular Army alongside AL Quds brigades.

Al Quds pro-Syrian brigades announced through Facebook that thousands of its fighters are fighting alongside the Regular Army within a military campaign of "Liberating Handarat camp in Aleppo Northern suburb," using all kinds of weapons accompanied with air and artillery cover.

The camp is completely empty after the residents were forced to leave their houses following violent clashes broke out between the Regime and the opposition forces before about 1107 days. The clashes ended with the opposition control over the camp.

Meanwhile, the Syrian armed opposition forces prevented the residents of returning back to the camp, while the camp was repeatedly bombed with explosive barrels, which resulted in the destruction of almost 70% of the camp's houses.
