Victims

The Young man Mohammed Ahmed Wahsh from Khan Al Sheih camp died due to torture in the Syrian prisons after being detained for more than two years and a half.

The Young man Maher Al Shehabi died due to a shot he attained two weeks ago during the sniping operations between the Opposition groups in Yelda Town and Al Nusra Front with ISIS in Yarmouk camp.

Recent Updates

Two PLA members were killed during clashes with a Military group from the Opposition forces in two different areas. Media resources insured that the lieutenant Motasem Mustafa Kassab died due to a wound he attained in Tal Kurdi area in Damascus suburb on 11-9-2015 in addition to the death of the Lieutenant Mohammed Ahmed Saleh due to a wound he attained in Darea area in Damascus suburb on 11-9-2015.

This follows the death and injury of dozens of PLA members at Tal Kurdi area in Damascus Suburb and the continuation of battles in this area due to the attempts of the Opposition forces to reach Adra prison. It is referred that AGPS documented 145 victims from the PLA members, who died in clashes in several areas in Syria since the beginning of war.

Dozens of Activists from the families of the victims and the PLA recruits demanded the PLA, PLO and the concerned sides not to engage their sons in the ongoing conflict in Syria, not to send them to the tension areas and to stop the bloodshed of the Palestinian people in a battle that is not their battle.

It is noted that the Palestinian Syrian refugees are obliged to military services in the PLA and each one that doesn't go would be exposed to punishment. The compulsory service forced the young people , who refused it during the ongoing war in Syria, to leave Syria and travel to adjacent countries, where a number of PLA broke away from the army and joined the Opposition groups to fight against the Regime. It is mentioned that the PLA Staff Chiefs imposed on the PLA Members to participate in the battles supporting the Regular Army in the conflict areas and to go through continuous clashes with the Opposition Military forces in several areas in Syria like Tal Kurdi area in Damascus Suburb.

On the other hand, the Regular Army targeted yesterday Zakia-Khan Al Sheih road with heavy guns, where no information about any casualties.

It is mentioned that Zakia –Khan Al Sheih road is the only road for the remaining residents of Khan Al Sheih camp for Palestinian Refugees to reach Damascus. The Regular Army closes all roads that connect the camp with the center of Damascus.

In a different context, the Al Husayneyya camp schools opened its doors after three years of closure, where a group of school teachers and directors during the last two weeks registered the names of the students, who want to return back to schools in the camp. The school declared that each resident, after return to the camp, is able to register his children without bringing the transfer documents and the UNRWA schools at Husaeneyya will bring the documents for all students from the schools they came from.

It is mentioned that the Regular Army and the Armed Palestinian forces control the camp and Al Husayneyya area since 17 October 2013; their checkpoints were closing the camp's entrances and exits and prevent the residents to return back to their houses till August 2015, where the forces allowed the residents to return back gradually.
