Recent Updates

The AGPS correspondent in southern Damascus reported that ISIS executed a limb amputation of the Palestinian man known as Abu Ras Al Badawi from Al Hajar Al Aswad residents in charge of theft. The correspondent continued that on Friday 5th of May, ISIS executed a limb amputation of the man in Al Orouba are in front of some residents of the camp as they charged him of stealing some houses specially during the Yarmouk Camp siege period.

It is mentioned that ISIS controlled the Yarmouk camp in coordination and collaboration of Al Nusra front” Al Sham Liberation Organization”, where ISIS controlled wide spaces of the camp after violent battles with the opposition forces in April 2015.

Palestinian activists criticized the PLO and the Organizations and associations in Yarmouk Damascus after leaving the Camps students, who left to pursue their studies, to walk on foot for long distances without securing the needed transportations. According to the activists that the students suffered from bad security and living situations during the last
