VICTIMS

One Palestinian has reportedly been killed during the fighting in Shiek-Meskeen town in Dara'a south Syria. "Amer Abdalla Abu Soud", from Mozereeb, was announced dead after he had been shot by the pro-Assad forces in the area. It is mentioned that Abu Soud is descendent to Almwasa tribe, the one of the tribes of north Palestine.

RECENT UPDATES

Activists and relatives of several Palestinian soldiers complained about the leadership of PLR refuses demobilising conscripts at the end of their military service period. Letters received by AGPS during the last few months assured that some soldiers have been serving since the beginning of the Syrian war in 2011. It is indicated that most of Palestinian refugees in Syria have to spend, at least, 2 years in compulsory military service. The service should be under the leadership of Palestine Liberation Army (PLA), which is fully subjected to the instructions of Syrian Ministry of Defence.

At end of the military service, one soldier completed all his requirements, but the top leader of PLA, Brigadier General "Tariq Alkhadra", refused to sign the application of demobilisation, which means keeping him in service for unknown time, the soldier, under condition of anonymity, told AGPS.

Many activists accused that PLA sided with Assad regime in the fighting against the opposition deploying Palestinian soldiers in the hotspots fighting.

AGPS has documented 153 victims from PLA during the war in Syria since March 2011.

NGOs

In Turkey, a delegation of Scholars of Palestine Institution, The Turkish Assembly for solidarity with Palestine (Fidder) and Palestine Charity Association have discussed the situation of Palestinians-in-Turkey with the consultant of PM "Muhammed Murtaza Yetiş". The meeting, which was held in Istanbul last Wednesday, focused on the Palestinian refugees' rights in Turkey. The delegation provided a detailed report regarding the plight of Palestinians in general, asking the Turkish government to facilitate specific measures related to this issue. In his turn, Yetiş assured that Turkey has adopted a decision to equal the Palestinians inside Turkey as Syrian refugees.

According to AGPS, the number of Palestinians in Turkey estimated between 6000-8000 in Istanbul, mid and south of Turkey. It is mentioned that Turkish embassies are still prevent visas to the Palestinians from Syria.

ARRESTING

Two brothers, "Ammar Jumaa Ebraheem" 34-years-old and his brother "Khaled" 40-year-old, are still in enforced disappearance since September 2013. The Syrian security had arrested the two brothers as they were checked at the security point in Sbaineh camp road. It is indicated that Ammar and Khaled from Yarmook camp.
