Latest Developments

Three Palestinian toddlers died in war-tattered Syria after the government troops denied them access out of Yalda for urgent treatment at Damascus hospitals.

Residents of Yalda town and Yarmouk Camp have frequently launched cries for help over the deteriorating health services in the area due to the tough cordon enforced by the government forces and the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine – General Command (PFLP – GC) for over 1,361 days.

AGPS quoted activists as identifying the three toddlers as: six-day-old Jaafar Abu Khalil, Abdullah Kharmendi, and Rawaa Abu Hamdan. The three casualties were pronounced dead over the past couple of days.

AGPS documented the death of 185 Palestinian refugees in besieged Yarmouk Camp due to undernourishment and medical neglect.

Meanwhile, Palestinian resident of AlNeirab Camp, in Aleppo, Youssef AlKubra has been locked up in Syrian penitentiaries for the fifth year running. The detainee is one of the prominent Islamic Jihad leaders in Palestine.

In another development, the Palestine Charity Commission, in partnership with Shourouq AlShams Foundation distributed $2,500 to 50 orphans in AlMuzeireeb town as part of ongoing endeavors to assuage the calamitous state of affairs endured by the Palestinian refugee community in southern Syria.

In the meantime, Palestinian refugee from Syria in Germany Ahmad Nawfel, a former resident of Yarmouk Camp, made it to the Bodybuilding Championship final in Germany.

Ahmad had been nominated Syria's bodybuilding champion. He earned several awards at bodybuilding competitions staged over the past few years.
