Victims

The Palestinian refugee " Mohammed Saeed Shara'n" was shot by a sniper in Haifa St. in Yarmouk. While the contact areas between ISIS and Jabhet Fatah Al-Sham witness a lot of snipping operations inside the camp.

The number of Palestinian victims who were snipped has reached (298) victims. In the meantime, ISIS still Imposes a blockade on Al-Rejah and its surroundings, Ain Ghazal and Haifa St. in Yarmouk after closing the only barrier that joined the area of "Jabhat Fateh al-Sham". In addition, it prevents the citizens getting in or out the camp. Moreover, delivering foodstuffs was also forbidden except for rare conditions. Unluckily, Syrian regime still imposing its siege over several areas and the camp for (1214) consecutive days. Power was cut for more than (1275) days in addition to water cut for (765) days respectively.

Recent Updates

AGPS reporter in Khan Al-Sheih confirmed that aircrafts shelled civilians' houses at early morning causing at least one injured child and widespread destruction.

He also added that this bombardment comes amid terrible healthy and living conditions that Khan Al-Sheih's people suffer from. In addition to the heavy shelling on the camp and closing all the connecting roads between the camp and the capital which lead to the lack of most of medical and food supplies in the camp.

In a related context, European Network for Palestinians of Syria addressed Russian embassy in Holland, United Nations office in Holland and the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Dutch Parliament. The Network condemned and denied targeting the camp by international prohibited weapons like cluster bombs, which is considered as dangerous escalation against Palestinian camps in Syria.

It also demanded immediate cessation of all kinds of airstrikes and artilleries which caused dozens of victims including women and children and an extensive destruction in the camp infrastructure.

It called all parties of the conflict to neutralize the camp maintaining the Palestinian existence in Syria, lift the siege, provide the camp with its necessities to survive, stop all kinds of military operations, provide the camp with medical and food aids to the trapped people and to release Palestinian detainees in regime prisons.

It addressed the UN to protect Palestinian refugees in Syrian, provide them with urgent aids and to find a solution for Detainees' case.

It's worth mentioning that the Network had called in a previous statement the Palestinian, Arab and Islamic communities in Holland to participate in the solidarity electronic campaign with Khan Al- sheih "Don't let the camp down".

In Vienna, dozens of Palestinian refugees have organized a solidarity sit-in with Khan Al- Sheih in front of UN office calling to stop shelling the camp.

Protestors demanded all the international and Palestinian institutions to mediate in order to stop targeting the camp and lift the siege. They also held the responsibility of protecting civilians and children for international institutions.

Dozens of trapped Palestinian Syrians in Athens have organized a solidarity sit-in with Khan Al- Sheih. They have denied the heavy shelling on the camp in the last weeks which killed a large number of civilians. They also called to open safe paths to provide the camp with needed aids.

In the meantime, a number of students in Yarmouk went to the nomination exams for high school certificate for the year 2016-2017. They went to "Said al-Ass" and "Palestine" Institutes in Damascus despite the fierce clashes between ISIS and Al- Nusra Front.

It's worth noting that the struggle in Syria still affects negatively on Palestinian refugees' education. It limits a lot of education opportunities for children and youngmen. Fearing of death or arrest are the main obstacles that prevented high school students' from pursuing their education.
