Recent Updates

Violent explosions rocked the Yarmouk camp yesterday, coincided with warplanes hovering over the camp, while violent clashes broke out yesterday between ISIS groups alongside Al Nusra Front and Aknaf brigades alongside youth of the camp. The clashes broke out at the Yarmouk Municipality crossing, Palestine Street, and Al Rija square, coincided with mortar shelling.

Meanwhile, a child was injured in his leg by sniper shot was centered towards Yelda town at AL Thalathein Street near the sports city in the Yarmouk camp. This comes amid the continuation of ISIS control over the biggest part of the camp.

Moreover, sporadic clashes broke out yesterday in Yarmouk between the PFGC groups and ISIS alongside Al Nusra Front, while uncertain news reported that PFGC groups have advanced towards AL Rija square.

On the other hand, the Syrian army forces and the Syrian security services arrested the female Palestinian refugee "Salam Ammar," 23 years from the besieged Yarmouk camp while trying to leave it through Beit Sahem checkpoint.

It is worth mentioning that the AGPS documented the names of 828 Palestinian refugees who are detained at the Syrian security services; including 23 their fate is unknown yet.

Meanwhile, heavy shelling targeted the adjacent farms of Khan AL Shieh camp by the Syrian warplanes which dropped a number of explosive barrels provoking a state of panic amongst the residents as a result of the explosion sounds. In the meantime, the residents are suffering of dire living situation due to the acute shortage of medical services, the high cost of living, and the difficult transportations from and to the camp.

In Aleppo, a mortar shell targeted the house of the refugee "Nidal Al Khateib" who is displaced from Al Nairab camp to Al Hamdaneia neighborhood in Aleppo. The shelling resulted in significant material damages, with no injuries.
