Hungary

Rakan Hussein, Palestinian Syrian refugee, continues hunger strike against the obstruction by the Hungarian Government for the procedures of reunion with his 5 children for the third day, respectively.

Rakan Hussein expressed, to our correspondent, obstacles that faced him during his trials to reach Hungary and problems of reunion with his 5 children, saying, "during the reunion procedures, I faced many problems, The first is preventing the entry of my five children, by Lebanon and Jordan, to make interview with the Hungarian embassy, forcing them to gamble their lives by land travelling in order to reach the Turkish crossing border illegally. Turkey also prevents the entry of Palestinian Syrian refugees.

Mr. Rakan Hussein added, "Upon the arrival of my children to Turkey to make the interview with the Hungarian embassy, the embassy conditioned that their entry into Turkey has to be legal and they did not recognize the "Syrian passports" as stipulated by the Hungarian authorities to get another passport for children, and this is very difficult, even passports of the Palestinian Authority take several months.
