Recent Updates

The Palestinian Refugee, “Firas Mahmoud Bakeer” and his wife died on Monday due to an air raid by the warplanes of the International Allies on Al Tabqa city in western Suburb of Al Reqa north of Syria. Firas was married for two months and he is from of Al Tabqa city, which included 10 Palestinians families before the Syrian crisis, most of them were displaced to Al Nairab camp for Palestinian refugees in Aleppo.

In Southern Damascus, many Palestinian refugees participated in a march in Yarmouk camp south of Damascus to insure their right to return to their homeland Palestine and to condemn the Israeli aggression on Palestine since Al Nakba till now. They demanded all concerned Palestinian groups, organizations, and associations inside and outside not to forget the Yarmouk camp and the remaining residents.

Al Khayriiah association carried out a folklore exhibition for the Palestinian people in Yelda town titled as “Palestinians of Syria between tow Nakbas.” The exhibition included pictures for the Palestinian villages and cities, traditional clothes, and traditional living tools. Al Khayriiah declared that the initiative is to insure our insistence on the right to return and to remind the Palestinian people of their heritage and rights of their Occupied Palestine.

Thousands of Palestinian refugees were displaced from Palestine to Syria in 1948 then displaced from Syria due to shelling that targeted their camps and compounds during the ongoing war events in Syria since 2011.

The Syrian Regime continued to detain the Palestinian refugee “Nedal Ismile Mohammed” for the fourth year consecutively without determining his fate, and no news about him since he was detained. He is from Ghouarna tribe in Jelin village southern Syria. His family and friends appealed anyone who has seen him in prisons or has information about him to contact the AGPS.

AGPS receives many letters and information about Palestinian detainees and documents them though the difficulty of documentation due to the continuous silence of the Syrian regime on the fate and names of the detainees and places of detention. AGPS documented till now 1602 Palestinian detainees in the Syrian regime prisons, including 99 women.

On Sunday, 14-5-2017, Palestinians of Syria in the Turkish City of Ghazi Antep organized a solidarity sit-in for the Palestinian detainees and prisoners in the Israeli Zionist prisons, in addition to the Arab, Palestinians, and Syrians detainees and abductees in the prisons of the Syrian Regime.

In the solidarity sit-in, that was organized by Maseer Group and the Palestinian Refugees Association in Syria, and coincided with the 69th anniversary of Al Nakb, the Participants emphasized the necessity of connecting the detainees' issues because freedom is one block. They demanded the whole world to put all kinds of pressure on Israel to force it to stop violations against the Palestinian detainees in its prisons. The sit-in is also attracted the world attention towards the detainees and missing Palestinians and Syrians in the Syrian Regime prisons.
