Recent Updates

After the Egyptian authorities arrested 15 Palestinian refugees from Syria who fled to Gaza strip for several months then return to Egypt due to land, sea and air heavy bombing that targeted the strip during the last month. The 15 refugees have been arrested in Cairo airport and have been asked either to deport to Gaza or Syria. The Egyptian authorities have deported 13 of them to Syria amongst real fears of deporting the rest of them due to the possible risk on their lives.

AMNSTY International, in a statement which the Action Group had a copy of it, demanded urgent actions to stress on the Egyptian interior ministry to stop forcibly returning of the rest of refugees to Syria. AMNSTY confirmed the importance of arguing the Egyptian interior ministry to commit the implementation of the 1951 convention items concerning the refugee status and the 1069 convention items concerning the refugee crises in Africa. Stressing on the importance of providing international protect to those who escaped from the severe violations of human rights and the armed conflict in Syria.

The department of fighting crimes in Zouara city in Libya arrested about 200 illegal immigrants including a number of Palestinian Syrian refugees while they were trying to reach Europe through the Libyan beaches. It is mentioned that Libya has became one of the main passages to reach Europe by sea.

The arrested immigrants in Libya

In the same context, the Italian coastal guards declared that it has rescued, the day before, two boats which were carrying about 400 immigrants including Palestinian Syrians and Syrians who fled from the ongoing war in Syria. The Italian authorities said that the number of immigrants who arrived to Italy this year has exceeded the previous year ten times.

Death boats

It is worth mentioning that hundreds of Palestinian families have to ride, what is called “death boats” which were launched from the Egyptian and Libyan beaches and transport the refugees to the European beaches without any safety procedures.

Violent clashes broke out yesterday in Yarmouk camp between fighters inside the Yarmouk camp and the Regular Army alongside with the Public Front-General Command at the Yarmouk municipality square in Palestine and Al Thalathein Streets, while they use medium and light weapons.

In terms of living aspect, the strict siege imposed on the camp for more than a year is still continuous with complete power cut. On the other hand, heavy explosions were heard in Khan Al Sheih camp in Damascus city resulted in the bombing of Al Qusour farm adjacent to the camp. The residents of the camp are suffering of the repeated closure of roads that linking the camp to the adjacent areas which led to a shortage in basic and medical materials.
