RECENT UPDATES

According to reports received from Khan Eshieh camp in Damascus Suburb, the Syrian regime troops stationed at the regiment 137 cut off the road between Khan Eshieh and Zakya town, meanwhile, fired flares in the surroundings.

Zakya – Khan Eshieh road is considered the only road that supplies the residents of the camp with foods and essential needs, while all other roads leading to the camp had been cut before, forcing the residents to take the path of Zakya despite of its high risks, as it is being targeted frequently by Syrian army, and many residents of the camp were killed while passing through it, calling it the "road of death". Action group documented 141 victims from Khan Alsheh camp were killed during the war in Syria.

On the other hand, Sbienna camp residents demanded Syrian army and groups loyal to it to open the roads back to their camp, just like they did to Husseiniya camp, after 832 days of preventing them from returning to it. The camp's residents have been forced to leave the camp because of the violent clashes that broke out between the regular army and groups of opposition which ended up with the full dominance of regime's army over the camp.

Estimates of eyewitnesses' show that more than 80% of the camp is destructed, specifically the region from Muaaz bin Jabal mosque onto the bakery of the camp known as Kurds bakery, which forms the western entrance to the camp.

People of the camp have been displaced to neighboring towns and camps, this displacement brought them suffering that did not stop at leaving their homes, but more than that to include all aspects of their lives, which turned into a tragedy because of the economic conditions and the spread of unemployment and poor financial resources.

activists of human rights reported, those released from Syrian regime's prisons recently, have seen two Palestinian refugees still under detention: Palestinian Syrian detainee "Munir Sharefh" resident of Alzahraa district in Damascus, his mother's maiden name is Basal, who has been seen in the military security branch (Palestine 235), transferred later to the military investigation branch 248, and was last seen on November 2015. The other one is the Palestinian refugee "Abdel-Rahman Al-Jalf" who was transferred from Al-Fayhaa Security Branch of Political Security to an unknown destination. This information was reported according to a testimony of a detainee released in June 2015.

It is noteworthy that many of the released prisoners reported their observations of a number of Palestinians detainees or those who have died under torture in prisons system, while Syrian security forces are still keeping reticent on the fate of the detainees, exposing them to kinds of torture, including women.

LEBANON

UNRWA filled out the ATM cards for Palestinian Syrian refugees displaced to Lebanon, this relief forms food allowance equals 40,000 LL (equals 27$) per person. The UNRWA had cut off shelter allowance $100 for displaced families under the pretext of lack of funding and the failure of donor countries in providing the pledged aid.

Statistics prepared by the Union of Islamic relief organizations revealed that the number of Palestinian families displaced from Syria to Ein El-Hilweh camp of Sidon, southern Lebanon reached about 870 families, according to recent statistics conducted by the Union.

AGPS' correspondent at Ein el-Hilweh camp, assured that the number of PS families has dropped sharply, noting that the number of families that were living in the camp in 2014 reached 2,500 families, fell in 2015 to 1400 family, 2016 to 870 families.

The correspondent said that the reason for this decrease in numbers is the tension situation in Ein el-Hilweh camp and the desire to leave camps in Lebanon to claim asylum in Western European countries, while some of them preferred going back where they came from.
