Action Group for Palestinians of Syria

Both of the Action Group and Al Awda Palestinian center issued the first printed copy of the documentary report "Palestinians of Syria between the Hope of Return and the Bitterness of Reality".

The report reviews the evolution of events relating to Palestinians of Syria from January to July 2014. The report which published for the first time, considered the most important documentary studies issued by the Action Group for Palestinians of Syria and Al Awda center.

The report contains all the information of interest to researchers, activists and local and international human rights organizations regarding the Palestinians of Syria.

It also contains documented and precise information from the field and humanitarian reality of the Palestinian camps and compounds in Syria, and the situation of Palestinian refugees from Syria to all of Lebanon, Jordan, Algeria, Libya, Tunisia, Turkey and Europe as well the documented statistics of Palestinian Syrian victims until the end of June 2014.

It should be noted that the Action Group of Palestinians of Syria provides a digital copy of the report, free of charge, on its website, while the group is working in coordination with Al Awda Palestinian Centre to issue the English version of the report which will be released soon. Recent Updates

Residents of Husseinia camp are still waiting for the permission to return to their homes, since the control of the regular army, groups of the Popular Front - General Command, Fatah al-Intifada and the Struggle Front on 17 October 2013. People of the camp are suffering of tragic humanitarian and living crises as a result of the deteriorating economic conditions, especially in light of the displacement of all the inhabitants of the camp and rented high-priced homes in safer areas after preventing them from returning to their homes.

Husseinia camp

The entry of food aid in Yarmouk camp in Damascus is still prevented for the eighth day respectively, while residents are heading, daily, to the distribution points in hope of receiving such aids, which have become the only source of living, but it is useless.

A number of college students got out of the camp to apply their exams after the approval of the regular Syrian army and the Palestinian groups loyal to it.

In a related context, a number of youth in Yarmouk camp, launched Hash tag #We Want to Live, on social media sites, trying to gather public opinion to put pressure on the signatories parties of the initiative to neutralize the camp in order to implement its items.

The Yarmouk refugee camp is still subjected to tight siege for more than "396" days, where the people suffers of multiple health and living crises, while an agreement was signed between the Syrian government represented by the President of Palestine Branch, and a number of representatives of relief and armed brigades in the camp.

The agreement states to neutralize the camp, and break the tightened blockade, and allow the return of residents to their homes, but the terms of that agreement have not been implemented yet.

On the other hand, quantities of food and bread entered Khan Al Sheih camp after reopening Zakia road, which is the only way left for the people of the camp.

It is mentioned that Zakia road had been closed for several days by the Syrian regular army, which led to the outbreak of an acute crisis of food and bread in the camp.

Khan Al Sheih camp

Meanwhile, Syrian security forces have raided the house of the young man "Ali Mohamed Ali Hamid", 40 years, from Al Aedein camp in Homs, where the security members surrounded the house and arrested him.

Libya

The Libyan authorities, in Zuwarah town, released the refugees who were arrested, the day before, on charge of attempting to immigrate illegally.
