RECENT UPDATES

A Palestinian girl "Maram Alsayed" was shot dead by Turkish borders guards last night. Maram and her family were attempting to cross the Syrian-Turkish border fleeing the torn-war country when she was fired. Activists reported that three unknown victims were shot also by Turkish guards whilst trying to cross the border at Al-Qamishli-Al-Qahtaniyah point north east Syria.

On the other hand, the Palestinian refugee, Kamal Abbas, announced dead in the Syrian prisons. Abbas, from Yarmouk camp, had been tortured to death after years in jail. The 56-year-old man rises the torturing victims to 433, whereas, 1057 are still in enforced disappearance, according to AGPS. Worth to mention that Abbas is descendent of Hittin village north Palestine.

In Damascus Suburbs, the Syrian artillery fired the farms around Khan-Esheih camp. The shelling from, Al-Kabousyeh hill, targeted the area causing panic among the locals. It is worth mentioning that all bombing by artillery, mortars and tanks launch from Al-Kabousyeh military hill forming a sleepless obsession for the residents in the camp.

In the same context, news talking about re-opening the only access to Khan Esheih camp via Zakiya. The news comes in the wake of the control imposed by the Syrian forces based in 173 Regiment. But the road, called "the death road", is still under the threat of snipers and targeting by the Syrian forces, where many victims were killed on this road. AGPS documented 147 victims from Kkan Esheih camp during the last five years.

Moving to the mid-country in Homs, Syrian security has released two Palestinian refugees. Ghaleb Qasem "Abu Ibraheem", was released after 4 years in jail. Whereas, Musaab Mawed, released after 10 months in jail. They are from Homos camp where 186 out of 1057 Palestinian refugees are still in enforced disappearance.

In a different context, AGPS monitoring team documented 51 Palestinian victims from Al-Neirb camp in Aleppo over the course of the past five years. The victims were divided according to the death reasons, where 17 victims by shooting, 13 by explosions, 10 by bombing, 5 by snipers and 3 unknown reasons.

It is noteworthy that the Palestinian victims from the beginning of the conflict reached 3132, according to AGPS list.
