Latest Developments

Residents of Yarmouk Camp for Palestinian refugees urged Syrian Foreign Minister Faysal Miqdad to take serious action in response to the Israeli aggressions on Gaza.

The refugees called on the Foreign Minister to also work on rehabilitating their houses and property in the ravaged Yarmouk Camp, south of Damascus, pending their return to their homeland.

On the 73rd anniversary of the Israeli-inflicted Nakba of 1948, in reference to the expulsion of thousands of Palestinians from their homes by Zionist militias, scores of Palestinian refugees sheltered in displacement camps across Syria, have expressed deep anger over Israel's escalating violence and state terrorism in the occupied Palestinian territories and deadly aggressions on besieged Gaza.

In another development, Syrian security forces have ordered shopkeepers in Jaramana Camp for Palestinian refugees, in Rif Dimashq, to post banners supporting the Syrian President Bashar AlAssad in the upcoming elections.

A number of shopkeepers posted the banners for fear of being fined by the Syrian security forces.

Meanwhile, a number of Palestinian refugees rallied on Monday, May 17, outside of the UN office in AlMezzeh, in Damascus, protesting the escalating Israeli violence on the besieged Gaza Strip.

The demonstrators urged the UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres to take serious action in response to Israel's horrendous crimes against the Palestinians and flagrant breaches of international law and relevant UN resolutions.

In another development, residents of AlHusainiya Camp, in Rif Dimashq, said they have been increasingly terrorized and blackmailed by bandits strolling around residential neighborhoods.

The residents said gangsters have been waving white weapons, harassing girls, consuming drugs, and blackmailing the residents.

Meanwhile, AGPS renews calls for participation in the "Untold Stories" competition. This is your chance to tell your or someone else's story that has been left out of history books and put your/their voice at the forefront of war literature.

We're inviting you to write your own narrative as part of the "Untold Stories" competition. Your short story should focus on the tragedy that has befallen the Palestinians of Syria due to war-related incidents, most notably shelling, blockade, abduction, and displacement. The text should focus on a single experience.

To be shortlisted for the prize please send your well-written story to the following email: tellus@actionpal.org.uk

Our competition is open to anyone who has an untold story to share with us. Entry closes on June 15, 2021.

The winner will receive a prize of 200 USD. The second and third best stories will receive respectively 100 USD and 50 USD.
