Recent Updates

At least "250" Palestinian families are distributed over neighborhoods of Zamalka, Haza, and Hamourya spent the first day of Eid al-Fitr amid severe suffering from acute food shortages because of the suffocating siege imposed by the regular army on the eastern Ghouta districts since the beginning of September 2013.

Siege threw a heavy shadow on those families who have lost their sources of living because of the blockade and the war, according to our correspondent, most of these families do not get any assistance and some of them break the fast at the soup only, and in case a family managed to buy one kilo of rice they eat it for several days.

Moreover, residents complain of not being able to get any relief assistance provided by UNRWA because of the spread of snipers that prevented their access to the headquarters of "UNRWA" in the capital Damascus, which abstaining from the delivery of aid to the Eastern Ghouta.

For their part, residents renewed their appeal through the AGPS to all international bodies, especially "UNRWA," official Palestinian bodies, the Palestinian embassy in Damascus, PLO, and Arab and European Relief Institutions to take an action in order to put an end to their suffering and to deliver urgent relief aid for them.

On the other hand, a march was carried out at the streets of the Yarmouk camp yesterday morning, with the participation of the rest of residents; the participants raise banners and slogans condemning the political arrests and assassinations, and demanding to lift the siege on the camp. The march headed to the Martyrs' Cemetery where they were placed wreaths on the martyrs' graves.

It is noteworthy that the Yarmouk camp is subjected to full blockade by the regular army and the affiliated Palestinian factions for about 750 days respectively.

On the other hand, activists confirmed to the AGPS that members of the Syrian security forces raided the house of Derbas family and captured each of: the young man Bilal Derbas, 45 years, his wife Majdoleen Tamim, 37 years, and the young woman Nariman Tamim, 22 years. Cause or place of detention is unknown yet.

It is worth mentioning that Jaramana camp witnessed tight security procedures, where the regular army checkpoints severely checks on the movement of people and the entry to the town of Jaramana.

In the same context, Syrian security forces arrested the 35-year-Palestinian refugee "Bashar al-Derby" from Nairab camp while he was in the city of Aleppo; noting that he works as a bus driver (microbus) on the line of Aleppo - Neirab.

It is worth mentioning that the AGPS documented the names of 925 Palestinian prisoners in Syrian jails, including 50 Palestinian detainees still unaccounted.
