Recent Updates

A number of mortar shells hit different parts of the Yarmouk refugee camp in Damascus, while the siege is still imposed on the camp for more than ten months. The camp suffers of a severe shortage of medical supplies, which made all hospitals and clinics to stop working except Palestine hospital which works with minimum energy.

Juma'a Salih Saif passed away yesterday because of the lack of health care in the camp, raising the number of siege victims to 150.

On the other hand, Regular Army and groups of the Popular Front - General Command checkpoints allowed the return of a number of students who were doing their official exams outside the camp, in addition to a few families.

In the same context, the Action Group received news about new initiative that has been agreed upon, between the armed brigades inside the camp and the Syrian Regime, to neutralize the Yarmouk refugee camp on the conflict in Syria.

Reports about an agreement of supplying food aid to the camp and cancellation of the item concerning the regularization of the gunmen, which was mentioned in previous initiatives, to be settled in case it will be agreed in isolation from the Palestinian factions.

It was agreed also to break the siege on the Yarmouk camp and open the way for the entry and exit of people, in addition to the return of its residents and release of Palestinian detainees in the prisons of Syrian Regime - as stipulated in the initiative.

Meanwhile, Khan Al Shieh camp in Damascus witnessed a state of careful calm during warplanes hovering, coincided with power outage, and sounds of intermittently explosions were heard, sourced from farms surrounding the camp.

It is noteworthy that the camp and surrounding areas are witnessing significant tension in the past few days, which led to the continued interruption of access roads between the camp and the city center.

Lebanon

A number of Palestinian refugees, coming from Syria to Lebanon, sit-in in front of the Director of UNRWA Services Office, in AL Baddawi camp at Tripoli, to protest against the decisions issued by the Lebanese Government.

Those decisions prevent the entry of Palestinian Syrian refugees to Lebanese territory, except having a visa, prior approval and stop renewing their residency permits.

Protesters demanded solutions and alternatives to this situation, and at the end of the sit-in, protestors presented a memorandum of their demands to the Director of UNRWA Services Office in the camp.

Hungary

The Palestinian refugee "Rakan Hussein," continues his hunger strike for the seventh day respectively, to protest against the obstruction of the Hungarian Authorities to reunite with his children, on the pretext of non-recognition their passports.

Latest updates, Mr. Rakan met the representative of Hungarian Immigration Department Office in order to see his conditions and suffering, and gave him a paper and asked him to sign it, Rakan refused and insisted to show it to his lawyer who underestimates the importance of the paper content.

Rakan Hussein

On the other hand, in an attempt to activate the issue of Rakan Hussein, on more than one level, representative of the Palestinian community in Norway Mr. Hussein Awad made a phone call with the Palestinian Ambassador Marie Antoinette.

Mrs. Antoinette promised to do her best efforts to solve this issue and to provide all assistance to Rakan's children until they meet with their father.

Palestinian Ambassador in Hungary, Marie Antoinette, appealed Rakan Hussein to stop his hunger strike.

Civil Work Committees

The Charity Commission for Relief of the Palestinian people distributed food baskets to the students who were allowed to return to Yarmouk refugee camp, after they have completed the official exams.
