Recent Updates

Within the activities of "Save the Besieged Yarmouk Camp" a medical conference was held yesterday in Youth Support Center in Yarmouk.

The doctors spoke about the miserable medical and health situation in the camp, and difficulties they face while treating the residents.

This conference is part of the campaign launched by civil and national bodies and institutions operating within the Yarmouk refugee camp, which entitled "Diseases Increased and No Medicine".

Doctors' Conference in Yarmouk

Medical bodies in the Yarmouk camp has launched an appeal to all concerned to shoulder their responsibilities towards trapped civilians in the Yarmouk refugee camp, after recording new deaths because of lack of medicines and health care, and lack of suitable potential.

The siege imposed by the regular army and PFGC groups is the causative of stopping all hospitals and clinics from work, due to prevent the introduction of materials and medical supplies.

In addition, most relief agencies stopped working inside the camp after being threat by ISIS that dominated the camp early last April in coordinate and support from Al-Nusra Front members.

To the north of the Syrian, where residents of Nairab Camp witnessed a state of fear and panic after hearing an explosion rocked the camp, then turned out to be a plane of the Syrian regime landed at Aleppo airport adjacent to the camp, while ambulances headed towards the airport.

Another plane crashed previously on local homes in the camp, leaving victims and a number of wounded.

Residents of the camp are suffering of tension security situation and targeting of region as a result of opposition groups trials to control over it and the camp because of its strategic location for its proximity to Neirab airport adjacent to the camp.

Arrest

Syrian security forces arrested the Palestinian female refugee Ibtisam Younis Bakr, in her thirties from Al Aedein camp in Homs and originally from Alshajara village in Palestine, on 12 August from Homs - Aleppo Garage while traveling to Aleppo with her mother.

The number of detainees from al Aedein camp has reached (173) detainees, according to the AGPS statistics, as sit also documented 943 detainees of Palestinian refugees, including 50 female refugees still uncounted for.

Civil Work Committees

General Authority for Palestinian refugees distributed to the Yarmouk residents who are in the towns of Yalda, Babbila, and Beit Sahemin Damascus suburb, some medicines and chlorine pills, as well as antibiotics, salt solution, and 200,000 chlorine pills for the disinfection of water, along with a medical team to provide drug and treatment to patients.

Charity Organization also distributed meat to 50affected Palestinian families; such as widows and orphans at Alzahira and Naher Aisha neighborhoods in Damascus.

Gaza

The Palestinians of Syria in Gaza complain about marginalizing their demands and the failure to honor the obligation of Co-Government and UNRWA towards them.

The refugees suffer of difficult and cruel situation after the stop of the aid, which was presented to them after forming the Co-Government on 2nd of June 2015. In the Gaza Strip activists accused the government of ignoring the demands of the displaced refugees in Gaza such as work, housing, late salaries, housing allowance, education and health insurance and not recognizing them, in addition to the last aggression on the Gaza Strip that increased their suffering, where houses were demolished and damaged and the schools became their a shelter for most of them.

A refugees expressed his anger after the salaries cut and said, " our salaries are cut and there is no clear pretext and no one follow-up our issue neither from far nor from near, we have fallen again between the governments, ministries and employees , everyone throws us to the other justifying the difficult situation".

The refugees were questioning that how can people live with a monthly salary of 800 NIS (130$), which conciseness accepts this. Most of the refugees found themselves selling their furniture and what they have and search for work to feed their children. In a related context, news was reported about that UNRWA will pay the housing assistance for July and August 2015 for the Palestinians of Syria in Gaza.

The number of the displaced Palestinian families in Gaza is about 390 families coming from Syria, 240 families coming from Libya and Yemen, according to the Head of the Following-up Committee of the Refugees affairs from Syria to Gaza, Mr. Atef Al Emawi's previous interview.

Lebanon

UNRWA filled ATM cards for Palestinian Syrian refugees displaced in Lebanon, as well as a 40,000 LP was delivered for food allowance; about 28 $ per person, while UNRWA had cut off $ 100 accommodation allowance for displaced families under the pretext of lack of funding and failure of donor countries to provide aid.
