Recent Updates

Heavy bombardment with explosive barrels targeted Khan Al Sheih camp in Damascus city, as warplanes launched two explosive barrels toward Al Makhfar Street at the center of the camp which resulted in one victim and a number of injuries, some of them are in critical case, in addition to a massive destruction in civilian homes.

Khan AL Sheih camp and its vicinity witnessed a rise in military actions, as the surrounding farms have been targeted with explosive barrels and artillery shells almost daily.

Thus, linking roads that connect the camp with the city center are repeatedly interrupted because of the strained conditions which led to a severe shortage in food and medical supplies.

On the other hand, SSF has inspected Hamas movement office in AL Aedein camp at Homs, where the office has been closed with red wax seal. At the same time another two educational institutions have been inspected, which are, Zohour AL Yaseen kindergarten and Al Najah institution, were also closed with red wax seal. Those institutions serve educational services almost for free.

AL Aedein camp

As in Dara'a city south Syria, people of Al Muzaireeb compound suffer of the cut of drinking water, which forced them to buy water with high prices as the tanker price reach about 12 Dollars, and that what increases economical burdens. The compound receives hundreds of Palestinian families whom fled of Dara'a camp because of repeatedly bombing.

In Damascus, people of the Yarmouk camp are still anticipating the implementation of the neutralization agreement that was signed since more than a week, between Syrian Authorities and a number of civil committees and military brigades inside the camp.

As well as the residents of Yarmouk camp suffer of a severe shortage in food supplies, as the residents complained "as they named: cresses traders" to hide those supplies and raise its prices. It is worth mentioning that Yarmouk camp already suffers of a severe shortage in food supplies due to the strict siege imposed by Regular Army and groups of public Front- General Command about a year ago.

In the same context, UNRWA has warned about being disabled to produce humanitarian aid to Yarmouk camp despite the reports that talked about a cease-fire agreement between Syrian Authority and armed groups inside the camp.

United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the near east UNRWA spokesman Chris Gunness, said in a press release “last aid distribution inside the camp was about a month ago” adding that 18 thousand civilians are still besieged and suffer of tough conditions.
