Recent Updates

After being waited for a full day on the Lebanese Syrian borders, Lebanese General Security allows the six Palestinian Syrian mothers to join their children in Lebanon, after they insist to enter Lebanon. The six mothers had to wait for 24 hours before the Lebanese General Security allows them to enter Lebanon, while the mothers were accompanied their children in Syria to do the official exams there.

It is noteworthy that Lebanon has taken several decisions against the Palestinian Syrian refugees, as they put strict conditions on their entry into Lebanon, in addition to not renewing the residencies for refugees inside Lebanon.

On the other hand, clashes broke out in Alnairab camp at Aleppo, between members of the Popular Committees affiliated with the Syrian Army, following a dispute between them, where they began to exchange fire, and then one of them threw a bomb. The reports talk about a number of casualties.

It is noteworthy that Neirab camp under the full control of the Regular Army and some Palestinian factions loyal to it, the camp is considered a gate to the Regular Army because the military and the international airport.

Sounds of bombings were heard in Khan Al Shieh camp that rocked the camp. The sounds appeared to be bombings on the surrounding areas. The camp and the surrounding areas are witnessing a much tensed security situation because of the repeated clashes and bombings. On the living aspect, the camp is suffering of a severe shortage of medical services where all hospitals and clinics have been stopped except an UNRWA clinic. The clinic works in its minimum capacity because of the roads cut between the camp and the surrounding areas.

The siege continues on the Yarmouk refugee camp in Damascus city a year ago. The remaining people are suffering of a severe shortage in food items and medical services where 150 people died due to the hunger and shortage of medical care, according to the Action Group statistics. It is worth mentioning that all hospitals have been stopped but the Palestine hospital that works with its minimum capacity.

Hungary

“MigSzol” is a group of activists who are working on humanitarian issues like the rights of migrants, asylum seekers, and refugees. The MigSzol members joined hunger strike with Mr Rakan, who is on a hunger strike for the 9th day, in a symbolic act of solidarity to support family reunification. The group helps Rakan in making reports about his suffering. It is worth mentioning that Mr. Rakan started his hunger strike when the Hungarian Government obstructed the reunion of the family by not recognizing the travel documents of his five children.

Activists from "migszol" group in solidarity with Hussein Rakan

Civil Work Committees

The Palestine Charity commission organized a workshop on the empowerment of marginalized people in the local society. The workshop shed the lights on the marginalized people and its importance in the local society. The workshop contains a lot of important society issues besides the old people and needs, unemployed, widows and the handicapped needs. In addition, the lecture explains about the students who don't attend the school classes because of the crises in Syria.

The institutions, organizations and commission working in the Yarmouk camp performed a consultancy meeting. The meeting aims to put a 6
