Victims

The Palestinian refugee Ammar Abu Eid died due to torture in the Syrian prisons; he was being arrested since the end of 2012 for distributing bread for free to the displaced people in Barza Shelter Center in Damascus. It is referred that Ammar's Grandfather is one of October War martyrs in 1973. It is mentioned that AGPS documented 417 death cases due to torture from the Palestinian refugees who were detained in the Syrian Security prisons.

Recent Updates

Palestinian Activists launched yesterday an electronic campaign to call the ICRC and Doctors without Borders organizations to immediately interfere to save the Palestinian Syrian Refugee Ahmed Omar who is injured and stuck in Slovenia.

It is mentioned that Ahmed Omar was injured due to bombing on Yarmouk camp in Damascus which led to suffer paraplegia in lower extremities. Omar moved from Turkey to Greece through sea and he is now stuck in Slovenia and needs treatment and medical care. The Activists stressed in their campaign that they launched through Avaaz network for Social Campaigns on the necessity for all organizations and human rights organizations to act now to help the refugee Ahmed Omar.

Syria

The Palestinian child Waleed Mohanned Salem from Al Aedin camp was injured in his head after firing shootings from the south side of the camp by the Syrian Regime forces centered near the University housing the day before. The bullet entered his back part of head and because of the weak capacities and the bad situation of the child, Bisan hospital administration apologized to receive him as well as Al- Ameen Hospital administration refused to receive the case in which the taxi that carries him reached to Al- Razi Hospital and that there will not be any medical intervention before the passage of 72 hours on the case mentioning that the child Waleed is eight- year -old, from the village of Umm Al-Faraj in Palestine.

It is noteworthy that the AlAedin camp in Homs suffers from large harassment and continuous targeting by the Syrian army and security forces in which made its residents to call the camp Al Aedin prison.

On the other hand, farms and western parties of Khan Al- Sheih camp for Palestinian refugees Damascus Suburb was exposed to intermittent artillery.

This comes in light of continuing the closure of roads by the regular that connect the camp with Damascus suburb forcing the residents to take (Zakya – Khan Al- Sheih) road despite the risk that they may be exposed to after repeated targeting of this road.

Europe

Palestinian refugee "Abdullah Moussa" won the first prize of Judo Championship at the Kingdom of Sweden level in which he had arrived in the Kingdom of Sweden after the war forced him to migrate from the Yarmouk camp for Palestinian refugees in Damascus to the north of Europe. It is worth mentioning that the Kingdom of Sweden is the first destination for thousands of Palestinians escaping form the war in Syria looking for safety and escaping from the shelling and siege.
