Militants of the ISIS-affiliated Khaled Ibn AlWalid battalion stormed on Monday Jilin town and cordoned it off from all corners following clashes with the Free Army and its war partners.

Located 25 kilometers away from northwestern Deraa city center, Jilin is a home to 500 families, mostly displaced from Palestinian territories occupied in 1948. A number of other families are from the occupied West Bank and the blockaded Gaza Strip.

AGPS also documented the death of two lieutenants from the pro-government Fatah AlIntifada Movement: Imad Youssef Hindi and Mohamed Moussa Maa'touq, both killed in bloody strife with ISIS squads at the Palestine crossroads.

AGPS kept record of the death of 3,449 Palestinian refugees in war-torn Syrian, among whom 455 female refugees.

Over recent years, Khan AlSheih Camp for Palestinian refugees has come under heavy shelling via barrel bombs, artilleries, and missiles. A reconciliation deal struck between the government forces and the opposition outfits brought the hostilities to a standstill.

198 Palestinians sheltered in Khan AlSheih Camp were killed in the raging Syrian warfare, mostly under shelling.

Civil Action Commissions

The Palestine Charity Commission entered 600 bread bundles to civilians stranded in Deraa Camp, in southern Syria.

A campaigner said the charity supplied the residents with drinking water following a deal struck with tank drivers to secure water supplies for one week.

Civilians sheltered in Deraa Camp have been racked by a harrowing humanitarian situation due to the tough blockade enforced by the Syrian government forces in and around the shelter. As a result, civilians have run out of much-needed foodstuff. Chronic, power, and telecommunication blackouts have added fuel to the fire.

At the same time, the Furqan Charity distributed vouchers and food parcels to the Palestinians from Syria with special needs in Ein AlHiwleh Camp, in southern Lebanon.
