Victims

The Action Group documented two victims who died in the burning of Bait Lahia UNRWA School in Khan Danoun camp in Damascus city. The two victims are Nada Mtawee and her son Ahmed Al Absi, where the action group published in its report yesterday news about the burning of the school that receives a number of displaced families to the camp. The fire resulted in big damages in addition to a number of wounded. It is mentioned that the camp receives hundreds of Palestinian families who were displaced from their camps because of bombing and siege.

Recent Updates

For the fifth day after the four hundreds, the Regular Army and groups of the Public Front General Command are still imposing a strict siege on the Yarmouk camp for Palestinian refugees in Damascus. The siege resulted in running out of all food materials in addition to the stop of all its bakeries and hospitals except the Palestine hospital, which led to 154 victims from the civilians because of the shortage in food and medical care. In a related context, entering a limited amount of food materials to the camp this morning where it was distributed to the residents who were waiting for since the early morning.

Aid distribution in the Yarmouk refugee camp

The people of Jermana camp in Damascus city suffer of drinking water cut since about three days amid residents' calls to the Public Commission for the Refugees and the UNRWA to interfere to solve this problem. It is mentioned that the camp lives in a calm state and compared with the other camps it suffers of difficult economic situation where people complain of unemployment, high prices of food and the high prices of rent houses.

In Khan Al Shaih camp for Palestinian refugees in Damascus city a calm stat prevailed in the camp. It is mentioned that the day before a passenger's bus was targeted and led to the death of a woman from the camp and a number of wounded. The bus was transporting people through Zakia road. It is referred that all roads that connect the camp with the surrounding areas were closed because of the security tension except Zakia road which they close once in a while.

The arrest campaign continues in Al Aedin camp for Palestinian Refugees in Homs. The Action Group documented the arrest of Abdul Kareem since three days. It is referred that the arrest rate has been raised clearly during the last days which pushed people to leave the camp to other areas and some of them decided to make asylum in Turkey. In the same context, the Syrian Security released Eyad Mousa Abbas after arresting him for two days.

Egypt

The Action Group has got news about that the boat which left Egypt in the 9th of August 2014, heading to Italy and carries a number of Palestinian Syrian refugees, is available near the Italian regional water and the Italian coast Guards didn't rescue the boat till the preparation of this report under the pretext of that the boat is near the Malta Coast and the Maltese Coast Guards are authorized to rescue the refugees.

Release

The Syrian Security released the Palestinian of Syria Rami Emad Rahama after arresting him from the international airport of Damascus in 24th of July 2014.
