Lebanon

Displaced Palestinians of Syria in Lebanon demanded UNRWA to cancel its decision of reducing cash assistance provided to them, and vowed to escalate their protests that they started with set-ins and storming some UNRWA schools, to reach its peak, which no one can be expected its results.

According to a refugee who reported to the AGPS correspondent in Lebanon that UNRWA invoked every time under false pretenses to cut off financial aid to the Palestinians of Syria. He also added that the Palestinian refugee has been rejected everywhere, especially in light of the real suffering that they live in Lebanon, which is arbitrary actions taken by the Lebanese government against them, the non-renewal of residency, to prevent them from entering Lebanese territory, in addition to depriving them of their rights as refugees.

It was mentioned that UNRWA announced that it will cut the amount of 150,000LL, equivalent to $ 100 a month starting from July 2015, which was paid for more than 43,000 displaced Palestinians from Syria to Lebanon as shelter allowance for them.

Victims

Four Palestinian refugees were killed in Syria, including two victims shot dead by Syrian security, while the third died under torture, and the fourth died by the bombing. The victims are:

The two refugees "Tariq Ismail Mohammed" and "Muhannad Khaled Mohammed" from KhanAl Shieh Palestinian refugee camp in Damascus suburb. They were shot by a Syrian security member near their home in Jaramana.

According to one of the activists that one of the security members who is on the regular army checkpoint in the town chased them after they had an argument, and then he shot the two of them dead immediately.

The refugee "Mohammed Salah Al Hashem," 22 years from Khan Al Shieh Palestinian refugee camp in Damascus suburb died under torture in the prisons of the Syrian regime. It was mentioned that his family received the news of his death inside the prison by one of the detainees who were released earlier.

Meanwhile, the refugee "Arafat Sayed Al Qudairi," a field commander of Yarmouk Martyrs Brigade in the western region of Hauran, also died following clashes between groups of Yarmouk Martyrs Brigade, affiliated to the Syrian armed opposition, and the members of Al Nusra Front.

In a related context 13 Palestinian refugees from Yarmouk died since the beginning of May 2015, including 9 of them died due to clashes and shelling, a refugee died as a result of lack of medical care, another refugee died in mysterious circumstances, and two refugees died due to torture in Syrian prisons.

It should be noted that the AGPS documented the names of more than 1,100 victims from the Yarmouk refugee camp who died since the beginning of the war in Syria.

Recent Updates

Bombing targeted separate areas in the Yarmouk camp in Damascus yesterday, coincided with clashes on several points in the camp such as Al Thalatheen Street crossing. The Yarmouk also witnesses a tension state and absence of relief work due to the withdrawal of all relief activists from the camp because of the ISIS incursion to the camp at the beginning of April 2015 fearing for their lives.

Destruction in Yarmouk camp

It is worthy to mention that the Regular Army and PFGC are imposing a strict siege on the Yarmouk camp since more than 696 days. Horror and panic state was spread amongst Khan Al Shieh residents due to the continuation of heavy bombing with explosive barrels and artillery shells, which led to the death of at least two victims and a number of wounded civilians including children.

It was mentioned that all roads connecting the camp with Damascus the capital are completely closed except Zakia-Khan Al Sheh road which is targeted by the Regular Army with machine guns and shells once in a while. In Aleppo, violent clashes broke out near Azeeza and Shekh Lutfi fronts which surround Al Nairab camp for Palestinian refugees, where fire shooting sounds were heard clearly in the camp between the Opposition forces and the Regular Army.
